YMCA Truck Crashes Killing 5, Injuring 60

Santa Cruz Beach Fun Ends in Tragedy

SAN LEANDRO (AP)—Five children were killed and 60 South Berkeley YMCA youngsters and counselors were injured Friday in the crash of a stake-sided flat bed truck returning them from a Pacific beach outing at Santa Cruz.

Ambulances carried the injured to five hospitals in three San Francisco Bay communities. One boy about 10 was dead on arrival at St. Rose Hospital in Hayward.

Highway patrol officers said the truck overturned in a ditch between the divided lanes of Highway 17 near the General Motors plant in Fremont. He said the truck rolled over after the driver lost control.

Ambulances rushed 40 injured to Fremont's Washington Township Hospital. One victim was dead on arrival there.

O'Connor Hospital in San Jose reported three dead. Six injured were admitted there. Alexian Brothers Hospital in San Jose received five injured and San Jose Hospital nine injured, some critical.

A witness told the Hayward Review that children were scattered over a wide area around the wrecked truck. Commuter traffic was backed up for five miles while ambulances hauled away the victims.

The South Berkeley YMCA said there were seven counselors and 62 children on the truck. One of the counselors was driving the vehicle.

All were participants in the Summer Fun Club and enrolled in the last of four two-week sessions.

The group, with children ranging from 6 to 12 years, left Berkeley Friday morning for the day-long outing at Santa Cruz Beach and were homeward bound at the time of the accident.

The club made a tour every Friday in a truck obtained from a rental agency.

The club is a citywide program for both members and non members.

TIME STANDS STILL FOR LEGISLATORS

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—For the next two days it will be 2:51 in the Assembly and 4:33 in the Senate.

Clocks in both Houses were stopped Friday to give the illusion inside the chamber that it wasn't time for the legislature to adjourn.

WHEN IS PATIENT DEAD?

UC Chaplains Seek Answer to Euthanasia Controversy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—When is the patient dead?

An Episcopal priest proposed Friday that U.S. churches establish a "think tank," an ecumenical research center, to seek answers to that and other problems facing modern man.

The Rev. Charles Carroll, chaplain at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco, made his proposal in a panel discussion climaxing the annual meeting of the Association of Medical Instrumentation.

The center would provide a meeting place of thinkers of all faiths with representatives of law, politics, medicine and other areas of society to anticipate man's problems with in-depth study, Rev. Carroll said.

The six-man panel reached no agreement on the subject question: When is the patient dead? Members instead raised many other questions.

"When does the physician acknowledge defeat? Is he morally responsible if he pulls the plug of a heart pacemaker when the patient is moribund and in a state of irreversible unconsciousness?" asked Father John Ring, Catholic chaplain at the UC Medical Center and panel moderator.

"When is treatment prolongation of death and not of life?" he asked.

Dr. Henry K. Beecher of Harvard Medical School raised questions about the time of death of various organs, noting they don't all die at once and life exists at several levels.

"The moment of death can only be approximated," he said.

"When a man has become a 'vegetable' with no hope of recovery," Dr. Beecher asked, "how long should he be kept alive at a cost of $25,000 to $30,000 a year, occupying a hospital bed that 20 other sick people might have used?"

A man from the audience who identified himself as a potential patient declared, "I would utterly resent being maintained as a vegetable."

900 Jets Rake Viet in Heaviest Assault of War

SAIGON (UPI)—Up to 900 American jets streaking from Thailand, South Vietnam and carriers at sea struck North Vietnam from top to bottom in the heaviest one-day aerial assault of the war Thursday, military spokesmen said Friday. U.S. planes flew 197 missions.

Allied forces also dealt a blow to the Communists in South Vietnam, killing the commander of the Viet Cong battalion that had hindered flow of vital food shipments to Saigon and capturing his deputy in a Mekong Delta battle.

American troops in the Delta also were reported to have killed 285 Communist troops in a week-long sweep that took eight lives and saw 33 GIs wounded.

The war's most furious air assault against North Vietnam smashed at targets ranging from troop concentrations just above the Demilitarized Zone to warehouses and rail facilities on the fringes of Hanoi and Haiphong. U.S. jets tore up a railroad and highway bridge northeast of Hanoi on the key rail line to Red China.

BUT THE day's successes were marred by the loss of a Thailand-based F105 Thunderchief and the disclosure that four more American aircraft went down in the north during the past week. Military authorities refused to discuss the losses or say what happened to the pilots.

The around-the-clock assaults easily eclipsed the previous one-day record of 175 missions set last Oct. 14. Thursday's missions included 87 flown by the Air Force, 36 by the Marines and 74 by the Navy, the latter just starting to swing back into business after the disastrous fire aboard the carrier Forrestal last week-end.

Spokesmen said Navy A4 Skyhawks and F8 Crusaders dropped bombs right "on target" into the Loi Dong warehouse area eight miles northwest of the main North Vietnamese port city of Haiphong.

THRIFTY GUARD Will Shows Edwin Not So Poor

LONDON (AP)—On the face of things, financial success evaded Edwin Dunn during the 79 years of his life.

That's the way it seemed — until his will was made public Friday.

Dunn spent all his adult years working as a guard — a sort of glorified brakeman — on British railways. His top pay never was more than $33.60 a week.

Nine years ago he retired and started living more modestly than ever on a very modest old-age pension.

"Poor old Edwin," his friends used to say. "The only thing he ever seems to do is read the newspapers."

BUT EDWIN read the financial section of the newspapers.

He not only read them but did something about what he read. For his will disclosed he left $73,645.60.

Action Line is your service, solving your problems, getting your answers, cutting red tape and standing up for your rights. To get action, write ACTION LINE, Box 230, Long Beach, Calif. 90801, or dial 432-3451 between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m., or 5 p.m. and 9 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Q. I'm a registered nurse who wants to serve in a hospital in Vietnam, but the Air Force won't take me because I'm deaf in one ear. Does the Red Cross accept volunteer nurses, or do you have any suggestions? D. M., Paramount.

A. Yes, J. L. Butz, assistant manager of the Long Beach chapter of the American Red Cross, says that although no nurses are being sent to Vietnam, "we can always use a nurse in our volunteer blood program or disaster committee." The Red Cross is sending only young adults to open recreation programs in Vietnam, Butz says. As an alternative, you can contact the Agency for International Development (AID), Chief of Overseas Employment, Box 163, State Department, Washington, D.C., says Mrs. Elsie Sims, California Department of Employment, and request employment as a nurse, or you may wish to check church missionary programs.

Q. My 8-year-old son recently entered the GI Joe Hill 79 contest, and he was told by our local toy store he had a winning number. He complied with all the rules and sent in his entry blank long before deadline, but he's heard nothing, and my two letters to the company brought no response. Can you get some action for a disappointed little boy? Mrs. N. S., Bellflower.

A. Sure. Your son is indeed a winner in the contest sponsored by the Hasbro Toy Co., and he should be receiving his "realistic" G.I. Joe Five Star Jeep set within the next few days, says Mary Huber, supervisor of consumer service. The prize set includes a toy jeep, trailer and three-man crew.

Action Line

Q. I read in Action Line about the need for paint, and here at Lakewood Pool & Hardware Store, which I own, I have about 35 or 40 cans of paint I'd like to donate to some worthy cause, or some organization that really needs and deserves the help. Can you give me a lead? G. G., Lakewood.

A. You bet we can. ACTION LINE made contact with the Rev. Harvey Williams, president of the Long Beach Community Improvement League, and he says his organization has been searching all over town for some paint to spruce up some of the group's facilities. He'll be calling you to make arrangements to pick up the paint you wish to donate.

Q. Several years ago, I purchased insurance from the Atlantic Richfield Co., which I later canceled. Now I haven't been a customer for months, but I'm constantly being billed for $2.75 that I don't owe. They seem to be ignoring my letters, so can you help? W. H. R., Artesia.

A. Yes. Ignore all future bills, says Kathleen Dooling, credit clerk, who explains the small amount is probably an insurance billing error she'll have taken off your records. She says it could take a month or longer, but not to worry about it.

Q. The Long Beach Homing Pigeon Club desperately needs to borrow a 16mm sound projector to present a film at the Crippled Children's Society Center. Can Action Line help us get one? J. F. K., Long Beach.

A. Yes. With an assist from Tom Niekarz, promotion director for The Independent Press-Telegram, ACTION LINE homed in on a projector you can use, and we'll also see you get special instructions on operating the machine.

Q. Can you tell me anything about Jose Del Valle, for whom the park in Lakewood is named? In The Philippines, during World War II, I took part in dedication ceremonies at a baseball field named after one of my buddies — Jose Del Valle. Could this possibly be the same Del Valle? A. A. S., Montebello.

A. No. The park was named for Jose Del Valle, who was born in 1789 in Honduras. He was a noted government

Unattached Reservist Activation Authorized

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson issued an executive order Friday which provides permanent authority to activate any reservists who are not assigned to or participating satisfactorily in their units. Unattached or derelict ready reservists can only be called up under the order, however, if they have not yet fulfilled their statutory reserve obligation and have served less than 24 months of active duty.

Johnson's executive order implements a provision of the new selective service law which Congress enacted in June, and it is practically identical with a temporary executive order he issued last Feb. 15.

Approximately 70,000 reservists were originally estimated to have been screened following the Feb. 15 order, but they were given a chance to get into good standing before the actual callup was to begin July 1. It was estimated that 25,000 would eventually be activated under the order.

Any of the reservists ordered to active duty would serve for a period of time which, added to prior service on active duty, totals 24 months. "Appropriate consideration" would be given to family responsibilities and essential employment, the White House said.

Job Training Center Proposed for Venice

VENICE (CNS)—Plans for a more than $1 million job training center in the Venice area were announced Friday.

A spokesman for the Northern Systems Co. reported the firm would build the center as soon as a building containing approximately 15,000 square feet could be leased.

Former Dodge baseball star Don Newcombe, now public relations director for Northern Systems, told a Venice news conference.

"Four-hundred and fifty men and women, ages 16 to 65, will receive the vitally needed job training to enable them to become active and self supporting citizens of our community."

He said the center had been approved by Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty, the State of California and the U.S. Department of Labor.

It will employ the "lattice plan" of training, he added.

Santa Fe Springs Gets $277,800 Grant

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Friday approved a water and sewage facilities grant of $277,800 for Santa Fe Springs to aid in the construction of storm drainage facilities.

The project will cost a total of $677,100.

U.S. Halts Congo War Aid Under Pressure

Combined News Services

WASHINGTON — The U.S. is closing down its military airlift in the Congo under quiet but persistent congressional pressure. The first of the three C130 Hercules air transports that were flown to the Congo July 10 at President Joseph D. Mobutu's request was withdrawn nine days ago. The second was withdrawn Thursday and the last is due to be pulled out within the next few days, state department officials disclosed. Robert J. McCloskey, state department spokesman, emphasized that the U.S. has no military "commitments" in the confused fighting between Congolese army troops and white-led mercenaries in the Eastern Congo.

The only U.S. involvement — apart from a small military assistance program — has been to provide "logistics support" for the Congo government in the crisis which began July 5, he said. This support was described as involving the airlift of Congolese military personnel and equipment to the eastern Congo, McCloskey stressed.

However, he added, it did not involve U.S. personnel in combat operations or even in landing in the actual fighting zones.

Battles Spread in China;

HONG KONG — Fighting was reported Friday between supporters and opponents of Communist Party Chairman Mao Tse-tung across the length and breadth of Red China. Hospitals in Wuhan were reported crammed with wounded Chinese army troops and Manchuria was said to be in "wild confusion." The pro-Maoist admissions of spreading fighting followed a News Agency dispatch quoting arrivals in Moscow as saying that a situation resembling civil war has developed in the power struggle raging in China.

British OK Libya Pullout

TRIPOLI, Libya — British forces in Libya will be evacuated and their bases handed over to the Libyan government within six months, the Libyan government announced Friday. The announcement followed talks here on the evacuation.

Admirals Join Peru Cabinet

LIMA, Peru — President Fernando Belaunde appointed two admirals to his cabinet Friday, and some observers considered it a warning to opposition legislators to end Peru's nine-day congressional crisis.

Arabs Draft Summit Agenda

KHARTOUM, Sudan — Arab foreign ministers meeting here have decided to recommend an Arab summit meeting, Prime Minister Mohammed Mahgoub of Sudan reported Friday night. He said Sudan has been appointed to draw up an agenda and draft a communique to be placed before the foreign ministers today. The decision came after five days of sometimes stormy deliberations.

Airliner Pluge Injures 20

ROME — More than 20 passengers including an American family of five, were rushed to hospitals Thursday after being hurled around the inside of a Caravelle jet when it flew into a down draft over the Alps. Air France pilot Marc Lortsch said the jet plummeted about 1,000 feet before he regained control. The plane was carrying a crew of seven and 61 passengers, many of whom were thrown out of their seats. The American family was that of Dennis Mughin, 52.

Poaching Russ Ship Towed to U.S. Port

DUTCH HARBOR, Alaska — A Russian trawler seized by the U.S. Coast Guard late Thursday for violating the U.S. 12-mile fishing limit was towed into this Aleutian island port Friday. Coast Guard officials said the skipper of the Soviet craft, Daniel Baronik, would be flown to Anchorage for arraignment "as soon as possible." Also flying to Anchorage, they said, would be several Coast Guard officers, who will be witnesses, and another Russian who was not immediately identified.

fied. The trawler, the SRTM 8-457, was the same vessel seized March 22 off Seal Cape in the Shumagin Islands. At that time, the skipper, Leonid M. Kuschenko, was fined $10,000. When the 230-foot Avoyel approached the 180-foot trawler, the Russian crewmen were observed throwing "unidentified material" overboard, the Coast Guard said.

Ironclad's Anchor Recovered

WASHINGTON — A nine-foot anchor, corroded and mud-encrusted but still operable, and dinnerware in a good state of preservation have been recovered from the Civil War ironclad Tecumseh which sank in Mobile Bay 103 years ago today. The Smithsonian Institution Friday displayed the one-ton anchor and the dishes, the first artifacts brought to the surface from the Yankee ship. Navy divers also appeared to have established that the Union vessel was sunk by a Confederate mine. There had been much debate that Confederate guns at Ft. Morgan, guarding the entrance to the bay, may have sunk the ship. Divers have not entered the hull and it may be some time before any examination of the ship's interior is possible. Great deliberation will be exercised in order to assure that the ship can be raised intact as the only surviving example of the Monitor class of fighting ships that opened the era of armored naval warfare a spokesman said. It was when the Tecumseh went down that Rear Adm. David Farragut was said to have cried, "Damn the torpedoes Full speed ahead."

FCC Exempts News Broadcasts

WASHINGTON — The Federal Communications Commission says it is exempting news broadcasts and on-the-spot coverage of news events from the provisions of its fairness doctrine governing personal attacks. Under the fairness doctrine, a station broadcasting a personal attack must notify the individual being attacked and provide him with the transcript of the material. This will no longer be required for newscasts and coverage of breaking news stories. News interview programs and documentaries must continue to meet all the fairness doctrine requirements.

Senate Probes Stock Market

WASHINGTON — Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., Friday announced an investigation of the stock market's reaction to President Johnson's tax increase message. The Senate Finance Committee has asked the New York exchanges to submit for examination their records of stock transactions during the day. Williams said the committee hoped to learn how much money was made by persons with early knowledge of the President's message. Williams and Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., sharply criticized Johnson's advisers for allowing the message to be released while the market was open.

U.S. Auctions Silver

WASHINGTON — The U.S. government's first competitive sale of silver from the Treasury stockpile Friday drew high and heavy bidding. The prices offered indicated a continued strong demand for the precious metal that is being used more and more in electronics and photography. Average price for the 3,038,000 ounces sold on a competitive basis was $1.7862, compared with a current free market price of $1.81.

Navy Due British Minesweeps

WASHINGTON — The Senate Appropriations Committee approved Friday a $70-billion Defense Department money bill—including a $63-million item to permit the Navy to buy seven British-made minesweepers. In one of scores of changes it made in the House-passed bill, the committee eliminated an amendment, adopted on the House floor, which would ban U.S. purchase of any foreign-built warships. The total as approved by the committee is $1.4 billion below what President Johnson asked and $139 million less than voted by the House when it passed the bill June 13. But committee members conceded that the newly announced buildup of forces in Vietnam makes it certain that it will be necessary to add later to the $20 billion earmarked for the Southeast Asian conflict. The biggest cuts in the budget related to two controversial Navy programs, the F11B Supersonic jet and the fast deployment logistic ship (FDL). The Defense Department had asked for $287 million for the F11B, but the Senate cut the total to $115 million, enough to buy only six planes. Chairman Richard Russell, D-Ga., of the Senate Armed Services committee, was instrumental in blocking the $300 million budget request for the FDL, contending it could lead to U.S. involvement in brush fire wars all over the world.

Texas Sues Drug Makers

AUSTIN, Tex. — Texas filed a price fixing suit in Dallas federal court Friday asking triple damages of up to $12 million against five major drug producers. Defendants are Charles Pfizer & Co., Inc., American Cyanamid Co., Bristol-Myers Co., Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. and the Upjohn Co. The federal government also has an antitrust case pending against the firms.

Mexico Lifts Ban, Sinatra Welcome

Combined News Services
Frank Sinatra, barred from Mexico since April 1966, will be allowed to re-enter the country, the government announced Friday night.

The Interior Ministry lifted the ban at the request of the government's directorate of motion pictures, which wanted it removed "to continue the good relations now existing between the film industries of the United States and Mexico."

Sinatra had been a frequent visitor to Mexico before the government barred him, charging that scenes in one of his films, "Marriage on the Rocks," disparaged Mexico and the Mexican people.

The ministry said another consideration in lifting the ban was a letter from Jack Valenti, head of the Motion Picture Producers Association of America, who said Sinatra "honestly had no intention of offending Mexico, its institutions or its people... because he has the highest regard for them."

MEMOIRS BAN

A West German court stepped into a publishing war Friday and ordered the weekly magazine Stern not to publish an unauthorized version of the alleged memoirs of Svetlana Alliluyeva, daughter of the late Soviet dictator Josef Stalin.

However the news editor of Stern said it was too late to stop the first part of the banned story since the magazine had been mailed to subscribers. The temporary injunction was obtained by Der Spiegel, a weekly news magazine which bought the rights to Svetlana's memoirs—entitled "Life With Father—Twenty Letters to a Friend."

Der Spiegel said it paid $120,000 for the German serialization rights.

CLEARED

Entertainer Art Linkletter and Los Angeles City Councilman Thomas Shepard Friday were absolved of any wrongdoing involving the Valley Music theater by a special council investigating panel.

The three-committee group concluded an oft-stormy probe after deciding charges of wrongdoing and payoffs were "founded merely on rumor and gossip" and "without basis in fact."

The lawmakers voted to forward transcripts of their three-part hearing to the state attorney general, district attorney and city attorney for consideration of possible action against witnesses who may have testified falsely. Deputy City Atty. Edwin E. Lawrence had started councilmen by testifying he heard a report the entertainer paid Shepard $15,000 to obtain favors for the theater.

UPHELD

The U.S. Court of Military Appeals in Washington ruled Friday that an Army lieutenant's participation in an anti-Vietnam war demonstration was illegal because his presence constituted "a danger to discipline within our armed forces."

The court made the ruling in the case of 2nd Lt. Henry H. Howe Jr., 25, of Boulder, Colo., who was sentenced to dismissal from the service and a year of hard labor for taking part in an antiwar demonstration in 1965 outside Ft. Bliss, El Paso, Tex.

Testimony showed that he carried a sign bearing the legend "Let's have more than a 'choice' between petty, ignorant, fascists in 1968" and on the other side the lettering: "End Johnson's fascist aggression in Vietnam."

OFF TO PUB

A 37-year-old bachelor from Houston, Tex., calmly moored his 22-foot yacht Friday at Plymouth, Eng., after sailing alone across the Atlantic, and headed for the nearest "pub."

Downing his first pint of English beer, William Wallace said he had had a perfect trip from Marion, Mass. The trip took 41 days.

STILL BARRED

"Millions of Americans are still barred from full participation in the American dream," President Johnson said Friday in swearing in a new chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Clifford Alexander Jr., 33 year-old Negro and former deputy special counsel to Johnson, is the new commission chairman. "We are equal before God. We are all equal in the eyes of the law, and if I have anything to do about it, we are all going to be equal in seeking a job," Johnson said.

CONFIRMS

Gen. James M. Gavin, former top Pentagon adviser, confirmed Friday that he had resigned from the Massachusetts Democratic Advisory Council because of his opposition to the Johnson administration's Vietnam policy. But he denied that he would become a Republican "peace" candidate for president.

In resignation, the general said, "The news today of the widespread burning, rioting and looting in our cities makes it obvious that we have been misdirecting our resources and energies to Southeast Asia for the past five years when we should have been taking care of our domestic problems at home."

Suspect in Attack on Pilot Charged

By DON KIRKLAND

A complaint charging assault with intent to commit murder was issued Friday against 54-year-old John Eickmeier, suspect in a sledgehammer attack on the pilot of a Catalina-bound private plane.

Eickmeier is held in Los Angeles County Jail pending arraignment on the charge at 10 a.m. Monday. Bail was set at $25,000.

His victim, John Woods, 41, of Irvine, was reported in satisfactory condition at Hoag Memorial Hospital Newport Beach.

Although knocked unconscious briefly by the hammer blows, Woods managed to land the single-engine Cessna Skyhawk safely at the Avalon airport, where Eickmeier was taken into custody.

THE SUSPECT claimed suffering a loss of memory about the incident, sheriff's deputies said.

The attack occurred several thousand feet above the Catalina Channel.

Also on board was Eickmeier's ex-wife, Mrs. Evelyn I. Rooker, 42, of 2212 College Ave., Costa Mesa. While her former husband and Woods struggled over the hammer, she hit Eickmeier with the spiked heel of her shoe, deputies said.

The pilot finally was able to radio a distress call, and airport attendants surrounded the plane and seized Eickmeier at the runway.

Local FM Station Reopens

Long Beach's own FM radio station—featuring popular music along with coverage of area news and community events—will begin broadcasting today.

Don Gill, president of International Cities Broadcasting Corp., which will operate station KNAC, said the 24-hour broadcasts would begin this morning at 105.5 on the FM dial.

KNAC's license has just been approved by the Federal Communications Commission. Initial operating wattage of 310 will be within 45 days with FCC approval, Gill said.

News programming—live when the occasion demands—will be augmented with sports coverage. Robert Switzer, a vice president and station manager, said programming will be interrupted for breaking news.

The corporation operating KNAC recently was formed by sixteen local residents. The station will operate from headquarters at 666 E. Ocean Blvd.

The station, off the air since February, formerly was owned by the McCray Broadcasting Co. of Santa Ana.

Open Storage Valve Emits New Oil Slick

Valves on two Rothschild Oil Co. storage tanks were forced open, causing a 300-barrel slick off Huntington Beach and the clogging of a storm drain in Signal Hill, the State Department of Fish and Game reported Friday.

Capt. Walter Putnam, of the fish and game bureau said a former oil company worker is suspected of opening the valves at the Santa Fe Springs company.

Putnam said the mess off Huntington Beach was quickly contained and sucked up by vacuum trucks.

More than 50 barrels of oil ran into a Signal Hill storm drain at California Avenue and 29th Street before the open valve was discovered by a company workman, Putnam said.

The oil was trapped at a pumping station at San Francisco Avenue and Willow Street, on the east bank of the Los Angeles River Flood Control Channel.

Vacuum trucks were used to remove the oil before it entered the channel.

Hahn Labels War on Poverty 'Mock Battle', Criticizes U.S. Riot Study

By BOB SCHMIDT
From Our L.A. Bureau

President Johnson's war on poverty is only a "mock battle," Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said Friday.

"The only way to win a war of any kind is to confront the enemy face to face," Hahn said during a press conference in his Hall of Administration office. "And this nation is not confronting the enemy face to face."

Education and jobs are the simple-to-formulate but difficult-to-apply solutions to the social ills confronting the country, the supervisor said.

Hahn suggested a return to what he described as "old-fashioned" concepts of education, including the imposition of discipline—corporal if necessary—on recalcitrant students.

And he said businesses and industries receiving federal contracts should be required to train and employ able-bodied people presently on welfare as a condition of being awarded the contract.

"There are approximately 122,000 small businesses in Los Angeles County and 104,625 unemployed men and 57,875 unemployed women. If each one of these (businesses) would take one person and train him, it could almost overnight make a tremendous reduction in our relief rolls and create in the families of the unemployed pride in supporting one's own."

"THIS MUST be a joint effort by private enterprise, unions and government," he said.

The key to everything, Hahn said, is education.

"Maybe a return to the old-fashioned truant officer is an answer," he suggested. "Round up the 14-to-17-year-old dropouts and put them in special schools or send them to camps where they can learn skills—but don't permit them to just wander idly around the streets."

"Every drop out is a potential trouble maker," he said.

Hahn said he was disappointed in the establishment by President Johnson of a commission to investigate the civil unrest which has plagued American cities this summer.

"The McCone Commission, after the 1965 riots in Los Angeles, made an exhaustive, thorough study of the problems, the causes and suggested solutions," he said.

"I am concerned that President Johnson's new commission, as well as Congress' several committees to study the riots in Detroit, Newark and other eastern cities will just duplicate the findings of the McCone Commission, listing different areas, different states, different names."

"WHAT IS necessary is that the United States government immediately provide a massive work program so every able-bodied unemployed man will work instead of getting relief; so the youth who are idle on the streets will work to occupy their time."

"The riots and disorder which are plaguing our American cities must be stopped, and there is one simple way to do it," Supervisor Hahn said. "We must give every citizen a stake in the society he would attack."

3 Booked for Grand Theft After Suspect Calls Police

Three men were booked for investigation of grand theft Friday after police said they found stolen goods in two Long Beach Central District apartments.

The arrests were made after one suspect flagged down officers on patrol at 5:15 a.m. to tell them two youths inside his apartment had stolen a car parked in a nearby alley.

Officers Jerome E. Lance and Peter C. Beane staked out the alley after they talked to the informant, Charles Calvin Bennett, 27, an apartment house manager, of 1134 Arcadia Court.

Minutes later they spotted George Pimp Johnson, 18, of 2315 E. 126th St., Compton, and Thomas Ivory Phillips, 17, of 2010 California Ave., walk from the house to the car, they said.

Both youths ran as the officers approached, but Lance and Beane nabbed Johnson, who took them to Phillips' home, the officers related.

Johnson told them several articles in Phillips' room were stolen, including a TV set, stereo and portable radio. Police said they also found two license plates and a vehicle registration slip.

They returned to the Arcadia Court apartment where they arrested both Phillips and Bennett.

Police said they confiscated five wrist watches, two radios, a TV set, a battery charger, a typewriter and a razor from Bennett's apartment.

They said the auto parked behind the apartment had been stolen Thursday from a Bellflower man.

Besides the grand theft charges, Johnson and Phillips were booked for investigation of auto theft and Bennett was booked for investigation of receiving stolen property.

YORKTOWN Ship Fire Quickly Controlled

Sparks from a welder's torch ignited a fire aboard the huge aircraft carrier USS Yorktown at the Long Beach Naval Shipyard Friday afternoon, but Navy spokesmen said damage was minor.

At first, billowing black smoke prompted a general fire alarm. However, the ship's fire crew brought the blaze under control before the arrival of city units.

A public affairs spokesman for the big ship described the fire as a "routine electric blaze." It broke out at 1:30 p.m. and was reported under control six minutes later.

A welder working on the hangar deck said sparks from his torch landed in the insulation around an air-conditioning unit and ignited it. There was minor damage to a stateroom, Navy spokesmen said.

Busy Destroyer Tender Frontier Back in L.B.

Seven months of providing vital repair facilities to cruisers and destroyers at Pearl Harbor ended Friday for the destroyer tender USS Frontier.

A large crowd was on hand at the Long Beach Naval Station's Pier 9 to welcome her 600-plus men home.

While deployed, Frontier took 45 ships alongside for repairs, and personnel from her 31 shops logged 245,000 man hours.

Pearl Harbor-based ships spent many months on varied Vietnam patrols and upon return home needed necessary, and in many cases, unusual repairs.

That kept the supply department busy, too, tracking down a myriad of hard-to-get items.

And when the weapons department prepared 140 torpedoes for delivery.

Frontier is commanded by Capt. J. S. Howell, who reported the ship's crew came through with $5,000 during the June Navy Relief Drive.

Attorney Linked to Crime, Dies

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Attorney Frank Desimone, identified by federal agents as one of the "delegates" to a 1957 conference of underworld executives at Apalachin, N.Y., died Friday at Good Samaritan Hospital. He was 57.

Desimone, of Downey, and 19 others named as delegates to the conference, were convicted in a New York federal court on indictments charging conspiracy to obstruct justice. All were cleared later by a U.S. appeals court which overturned the convictions.

Union Seeking Reinstatement for Strikers

OAKLAND (UPI) — The Eastbay Municipal Employees Union filed suit Friday seeking reinstatement and back pay for 284 employees of the Alameda County hospitals who went on strike early this year.

The union said 156 members were rehired at the end of the strike and the others were replaced by non-union workers. It alleged in the superior court action that an agreement was violated by the hospital authorities.

The workers were non-professional hospital employees.

Several Aid Bills Face Reagan Vote

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Millions of dollars in legislative-approved spending programs face the possibility of veto by Gov. Reagan, the state's fiscal experts said Friday.

'Rumford' Revision Delayed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate delayed action Friday on a modification of the Rumford open housing law, sending it to a committee for a last-minute study.

"I think it's in its death throes, or should we say struggling for survival," said Senate President pro tem Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, after the 33-2 vote for a delay in final passage.

BUT SUPPORTERS of the modification measure said they hoped the Senate Rules Committee would act quickly to approve the bill and send it back to the Senate floor.

The committee is scheduled to meet Saturday morning, while legislative clocks are stopped at Friday's 5 p.m. scheduled legislative recess.

The Senate vote Friday came after an hour of parliamentary maneuver and conferences between the upper house leadership and Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh, D-Inglewood.

Burns invoked a little-used Senate rule to send the bill to the Rules Committee because of major Assembly changes.

THE LOWER house transformed Burns' Senate-passed bill for out-right repeal of the Rumford law into a compromise bill modifying the 1963 act.

Gov. Reagan said Thursday he supports the Assembly's modification bill and urged final Senate approval.

"I am disappointed in the governor's office," Burns said. "At no time did the governor see fit to even confer with the officers of the Senate."

Burns made it clear that sending a measure back to committee on the final day of a legislative session usually means certain death.

BUT HE said he'd ask for Senate approval of the Assembly's version of the bill if senators refused to shuttle the measure to the committee.

The Assembly's bill — worked out in sessions with Unruh, D-Inglewood — would exempt all housing under five units, including single-family homes, from antidiscrimination provisions of the Rumford law.

The act currently covers single-family dwellings financed by government funds.

California voters in 1964 approved Prop. 14, nullifying the Rumford act. But the U.S. Supreme Court this year declared Prop. 14 unconstitutional.

LOGISTICS COSTLY 48-Member Missouri Family in Southland

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Retired 68-year-old Missouri trucking executive Joseph Wieck and his family are enjoying a vacation in Southern California, but the logistics and expenses stagger the imagination.

Roundtrip fare for the 48 member Wieck family alone cost the St. Louis grandfather $6,113 and it took two buses to transport the clan to Los Angeles from San Francisco Wednesday.

The family occupied 25 rooms at the swank St. Francis Hotel in the bay city and the breakfast tab came to about $200. Their baggage forms a miniature mountain.

THE FAMILY includes three nuns, a priest and 25

And Democratic Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh of Inglewood said he already had been assured the Republican governor would veto a bill to give thousands of California school teachers boosts in their pensions.

"The governor told me flatly that he was going to veto it," Unruh told a joint news conference with Assemblyman Robert T. Monagan of Tracy, the Assembly's Republican leader. "And I support that position."

THE PLAN, called AR-COSS, would give teachers extra pension credit for training and teaching they received and did outside of California before moving to the state. Its ultimate cost has been estimated as high as $700 million over a 40-year period.

Monagan told the reporters the governor may get bills for $50 million to $100 million with only $10 million or $15 million available to finance them. He said the figures are guesses.

He said "there just simply is insufficient money available for the long list of appropriation measures that are going to be down on the governor's desk."

THIS COULD apply to Unruh's $10 million program to help poverty areas this summer as well as some of his own bills, Monagan said.

State Finance Department officials were more conservative in estimating the total cost of appropriations not included in the budget and not financed by the governor's $1 billion tax increase program.

Roy Bell, an assistant finance director, estimated the figure at $25 million to $50 million. One bill already sent to the governor provides a $2.5 million cost of living increase for retired state employees.

Another measure, costing $5 million, exempts half a "double tax" on dividends paid by wholly owned subsidiary firms of holding companies. Many other bills may not get final approval.

Air Passengers Flying In, Out of L.A. Set Record

LOS ANGELES (CNS) — More than eight million air travelers passed through Los Angeles International Airport in the first half of 1967 to set a six-month record, it was reported Thursday.

Louis Warschaw, president of the Airport Commission said the 8,268,403 passengers represented a 16.3 per cent increase over the 7,107,406 travelers flying in and out of the airport during the same period last year.

Assembly OKs Junior College Tax, Aid Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill providing state aid and unlimited taxing power for junior colleges construction through June, 1968, won final legislative approval Friday in the Assembly.

The 43-23 vote sent the measure to the governor.

THE SENATE passed measure, creating the Junior College Construction Act of 1967, provides for a sliding scale of state — local cost sharing depending on the assessed valuation backing each student.

It also allows trustees to levy unlimited override taxes to finance construction without a vote of the people. In addition, the measure, by Sen. Walter W. Stiern, D-Bakersfield, requires districts to draw up 10-year construction master plans.

1967 ASSEMBLY SESSION NEARS CLOSE

Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh, D-Inglewood, and Assembly Minority Leader Robert Monagan, R-Tracy, appear to be in happy mood while talking to newsmen during joint news conference Friday. The legislators reviewed action taken during 1967 session of legislature. Adjournment is expected Sunday.

Economy in State Improved

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California economy "showed significant improvement" during the second quarter of 1967, the state Finance Department reported Friday.

Total employment in mid June was 7.4 million, an increase of 2.4 per cent from 1966.

But unemployment rose slightly to 5.2 per cent of the labor force in June.

THE DEPARTMENT also said personal income increased with raises in wage and salary payments.

Total retail sales were 5 per cent above the 1966 level.

"Particularly strong employment advances occurred in the Los Angeles, Orange, Santa Clara and San Joaquin Valley metropolitan areas," the report said.

Increases in unemployment were recorded in the areas of San Bernardino, Riverside-Ontario, Sacramento, Stockton, Bakersfield and Oxnard-Ventura.

Slayer Suspect Warrant Issued

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A warrant was issued Friday for James Henry Carter, 33, in connection with the slaying of Evelyn Roberts, 42, a blonde waitress whose body was found in an abandoned truck in a Santa Monica motel.

The warrant was issued after Deputy Dist. Atty. George Rhodes signed a formal complaint charging Carter with murder.

The victim's body, clad only in an apron, black net stockings and shoes, was found in an abandoned truck at the Olympic Auto Villa Motel Wednesday.

Police said she apparently was slain between July 21 and 26, probably at Carter's room at the Green Hotel in Hollywood into which the victim and Carter had moved as man and wife July 17.

The hotel manager said Mrs. Roberts moved out of the hotel after the first night saying Carter "drank too much and abused her."

However, she returned on the 21st looking for Carter. She was last seen alive going up the stairs toward Carter's room.

Police said they believed her body was put in the trunk and transported by taxi July 26 to Santa Monica where Carter checked into the motel.

Carter, who worked in Venice as a telephone solicitor, was last seen Monday when he left the motel without checking out.

Medi-Cal May Need $200 Million Boost

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California's Health Review and Program Council decided Friday that $200 million may be needed to bail the state Medi-Cal program of financial difficulties.

The group voted to ask the administration of Gov. Ronald Reagan to request additional funds from the Legislature.

But the council bogged down in its efforts to agree on ways the huge program could be cut to fit available funds. The council will meet again Friday, Aug. 11.

Spencer Williams, state Health and Welfare administrator, said he would consider the proposal that more funds be sought But he urged that ways be found quickly to operate the program within current fiscal limits in view of the recent state tax increases and the proposal to hike federal taxes.

The council considered 16 major proposals from a variety of sources for paring the program. They ranged from cutting back the program to the basic five services required under federal law for a saving of about $175 million to cutting out special duty nursing for a $500,000 saving.

The group recommended banning elective surgery for an estimated saving of more than $20 million and favored eliminating a provision that allows the meeting of transportation charges other than ambulances for another $1 million saving.

Rejected was a proposal to impose a fee scheduled on physicians' services.

Medi-Cal provides basic health services for about 1.5 million needy Californians.

The administration has estimated its costs for the current fiscal year at $904 million. This would be $117 million more than the 1966-67 fiscal period.

Glendale Man to Run the Navy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Assistant Defense Secretary Paul R. Ignatius was picked Friday by President Johnson to become secretary of the Navy — a job left vacant when John McNaughton was killed in a North Carolina Air collision.

When confirmed by the Senate, the 46-year-old Los Angeles native will succeed Paul H. Nitze who became deputy defense secretary on July 1.

McNaughton was supposed to have become Navy secretary on Aug. 1. He, his wife, and one of their sons, were killed when an airliner and a small private plane collided over Hendersonville, N.C., July 19.

IGNATIUS, a graduate of the University of Southern California and Harvard's business administration school, has been in the Pentagon since May 22, 1961.

He started out as assistant secretary of the Army for installations and logistics. He became Army undersecretary in February of 1964, and assistant defense secretary in December of that year.

Before joining the Defense Department, Ignatius was with a management consultant firm, which he helped form in 1950 after spending three years as a research assistant and instructor in business administration at Harvard.

To take over Ignatius' job as assistant secretary of installations and logistics, the President reassigned Thomas D. Morris, who now is assistant secretary for manpower.

In another Pentagon shift, Johnson announced the resignation of Norman S. Paul as undersecretary of the Air Force Sept. 30. He named Townsend Hoopes, now deputy assistant for international security affairs, to succeed Paul.

Ignatius is a Navy veteran, serving in World War II as an aviation ordnance officer aboard the aircraft carrier Manila Bay in the Pacific.

HE ATTENDED public school in Glendale, Calif., graduating with honors. He made Phi Beta Kappa when he was graduated from the University of Southern California in 1942.

After receiving his master's degree at Harvard University business school in 1947, Ignatius spent three years there as a research assistant and instructor.

With two Harvard business school associates, he formed the management consulting and research firm of Harbridge House Inc., where he remained for 11 years. The firm concentrated mostly on military supply and procurement matters.

Antiwar Group Issued L.A. Parade Permit

LOS ANGELES (CNS) — The Los Angeles Police Commission, acting under a court order, today granted the Peace Action Council (PAC) a permit to stage an antiwar parade Sunday in the Wilshire district.

Three members of the commission, which on July 27 had turned down the permit, complied with a ruling issued Thursday by Superior Court Judge Robert S. Thompson.

THE PARADE is scheduled to start at 3:30 p.m. at Serrano Avenue and move east to Lafayette Park at Wilshire Boulevard and Commonwealth Avenue for a 6 p.m. rally against the Vietnam war.

Police Commission President Frank G. Hathaway and Commissioners Elbert T. Hudson and Michael Kohn voted to issue the permit at one-hour special sessions of the board during which concern was expressed over the use of sound equipment by the peace group.

Hathaway specifically sought and received assurances from PAC representatives that the equipment would not be used for "inflammatory messages" or defamatory messages toward police.

Capitol Police Fastest Squirt Guns in East

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington police are being armed with squirt guns containing an irritant to be used on semi-dangerous assailants.

For the dangerous type, the police still will rely on their real guns.

Police Chief John B. Layton announced that aerosol chemical dispensers, which can squirt a cone pattern spray of skin irritant about 15 feet, are being issued Saturday.

Scout car and patrol wagon crews will be equipped with holster-type and pocket-type dispensers.

Forces Hike May Up Draft

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson's decision to strengthen U.S. forces in Vietnam may trigger larger draft calls and weaken domestic forces available for riot control.

Johnson announced Thursday that he had authorized an increase of at least 45,000 men to bring the total troop commitment to 525,000 by next June 30.

Most of the additional troops will be Army personnel in units that will be transferred from active duty forces presently based in the United States.

These domestic units will be rebuilt later from draftees and enlistees. There is no plan to activate reserves.

THIS COULD mean larger draft calls, plus the problem of lesser forces to deal with civil disorder and other overseas contingencies.

It could also require enlarging the Army beyond the 1,500,000-man force scheduled for next June. But the Pentagon said it had not decided if this will be necessary, and therefore had not decided on the future level of draft calls.

Pentagon officials say the size of the authorized increase — 45,000 or 50,000 men — is "entirely manageable" and neither the increase nor rebuilding of domestic units will cause a training problem.

The Army had been scheduled to give basic training to about 450,000 men in the fiscal year ending June 30, but it could handle well over 500,000 without trouble.

Monthly draft calls have been increasing. They climbed from 10,900 in February to 29,000 for August and 25,000 for September. But they are still lower than last fall when 50,000 men were inducted in October.

DEFENSE SECRETARY Robert S. McNamara said July 12 after a White House meeting that "there won't be any significant impact on current draft calls." He said total draft calls for 1967 would be "significantly lower" than the 1966 total of 334,530.

In announcing the troop increase, Johnson said that the total cost of the war may add up to $4 billion to the present $73 billion defense budget.

But the Senate Appropriations Committee sliced $1.4 billion from the defense budget Friday. This cut left the figure at $70.5 billion, $138.8 million below the amount passed by the House in May.

PICKET goes to his knees outside Chicago induction center as draftees attack some 50 antiwar pickets. Signs were shredded in the melee and the pickets — although outnumbering the draftees by about 35 — were slugged and mauled before police arrived.

SOUND OFF!

I recently read an article about a law raising the minimum amount of insurance a motorist must carry, but I want to sound off in favor of a law which would force all motorists to carry insurance. I've carried such insurance for 50 years, and have several times been forced to pay for damages. I've always carried insurance to protect not only myself, but the other guy — other motorists don't. I'd say every motorist should be made to carry a policy for both personal and property damage protection. One argument is that some people can't afford it — I say if a person can own a car, that person shouldn't drive unless he can carry the proper protection. I recently was the victim in an accident where the other motorist had no insurance, and it cost me $325 — I can't afford it any more than the person who hit me. But, I guess this is just another example of where the innocent must pay, because the law doesn't protect them. I say let's have a law that will protect everyone — no insurance, no license plates. Why should some persons carry insurance to protect others who don't? Let's make it a law that every motorist have the necessary insurance. A. H. P., Lakewood.

REACTION

In response to some who've complained about our miniature offshore islands, let me say that I think our city officials have gone to a lot of trouble to improve the appearance of these islands, and everyone should appreciate it. However, I do think it would enhance the appearance of the islands if they'd spray the rocks around the base with green paint all the way down to the water. The green paint would look like grass from a distance, and would put a colorful finishing touch to our islets — a sort of emerald necklace. That would be a nice improvement, and perhaps would halt some of the complaints. Mrs. E. P., Long Beach.

Draftees Attack Pickets

CHICAGO (AP) — A group of about 15 draftees charged out of a Selective Service induction center at 615 W. Van Buren St., Friday and attacked some 50 chanting, sign-carrying antiwar pickets.

Reporters present said the pickets were slugged and kicked, their signs shredded and their handout literature scattered. None apparently was injured seriously, although some were bloodied in the five-minute melee.

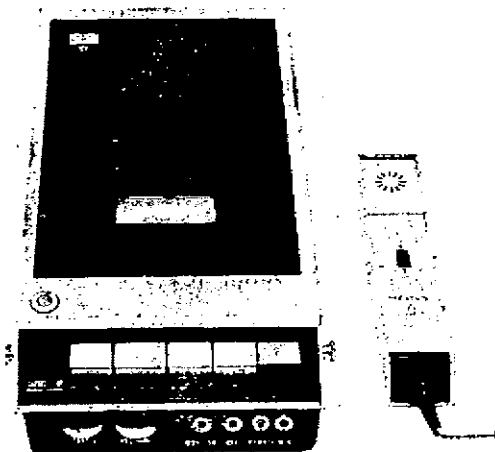

Several squads of police appeared as the fracas ended. The policemen usually stationed at the induction center entrance were not there.

REPORTERS were on hand because of advance notice of picketing from Chicago Area Draft Resisters.

Gary Rader, 23, who said he is an organizer of CADRE, told reporters his organization is "non-violent" and that "no effort was made to resist" the attack by draftees. Demonstrators resumed picketing, but their numbers dwindled to about a dozen.

Rader has been charged in New York with burning his draft card at a demonstration April 15.

Several high-ranking officials within the Ongania regime either have opposed the new law or have demanded that it be watered down considerably on the grounds that it will appear "undemocratic" and "fascistic" to foreign opinion.

But the powerful, ultra-nationalist faction within the government has continued to press for the law despite warnings about the damaging effect it may have on Argentina's image at home and abroad.

The government statement traces in only the sketchiest terms what the anticommunist law may finally say. Only the barest details of the language of the law are included.

The remainder of the statement is basically an argument as to why the new law is considered necessary when there are already laws against subversion in the Argentine statute books.

Cuba Quotes Carmichael: 'Talks With Castro Best of My Life'

MIAMI (UPI) — The Cuban government magazine Bohemia quoted black power advocate Stokely Carmichael Friday as saying his recent three days of talks with Premier Fidel Castro were "the most educational, most interesting and the best apprenticeship of my public life."

Carmichael, a Trinidad-born U.S. citizen, arrived in Havana a week ago — in defiance of a U.S. travel ban — to attend a hemisphere meeting of Communists convened by Castro's Latin American Solidarity Organization (OLAS).

The Aug. 4 issue of Bohemia, copies of which arrived here Friday, feature a two-page spread on Carmichael, 25, and his three traveling companions, all members of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).

Antipoverty Aide Denies Funds Helped Hate School

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An antipoverty official denied before Senate investigators Friday that federal funds were used to operate a "hate Whitey" school in Tennessee. Earlier, the senators were told that antipoverty workers helped agitate the Newark riots.

The Rev. J. Paschall Davis, chairman of an antipoverty program in Nashville, denied that federal money was going to a "Liberation School" which a Nashville policeman said taught young Negroes to hate white persons.

Police Capt. John A. Sorce told the Senate Judiciary Committee Thursday that it was common knowledge in Nashville that the school was operated by funds from the Office of Economic Opportunity.

After listening to the conflicting testimony, chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said he agreed with Sorce.

"I BELIEVE the captain told the truth," Eastland said. "I think the testimony supports Mr. Sorce."

But Sens. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., and Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., disagreed and supported Davis. Davis is chairman of Nashville's Metropolitan Action Committee (MAC), which is supported largely by federal money.

He conceded that the director of the Liberation School, the chairman of Nashville's Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was driving a station wagon leased by MAC. He also said that the church where the school is located is conducting a series of summer programs for MAC. DAVIS SAID that the contract with the church was signed July 24, but that no money will be paid to it until it stops operating the school.

He added that the name of the Nashville SNCC chairman, Fred H. Brooks, the school director, had been submitted on the summer program application at $300 a month, but that he had never received any money.

"You would have paid it if it weren't for this hearing," Eastland said.

AS FOR THE station wagon, Davis said, "We made a mistake in delivering the station wagon to Mr. Brooks. But it was a little mistake."

He agreed that Brooks would have been assigned the car had he been named director of the summer program, and that it was given to him on the assumption that his application would be approved.

Although the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) denied Thursday that it had ever given any money to the school, it dispatched an inspector to Nashville Friday to check on Sorce's charge.

The inspector, Harry Carpenter, will determine whether any federal money ever filtered into the "Liberation School," and if it did, to recommend action to stop it, an OEO spokesman said.

THE COMMITTEE, holding hearings on a House-passed bill to make it a federal crime to use interstate facilities to incite riots, also clamored to find out if antipoverty programs were "subsidizing rioters."

Newark Detective William Millard testified that antipoverty workers took part in the agitation that led to the July 12-17 riots in the New Jersey city.

Dad Kills Daughter's Boyfriend

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — An irate father shot and killed Friday a young high school dropout he told police had kept his teen-age daughter out all night on a date.

The victim, Billy Ray Shipwash, 16, died of a pistol bullet wound in the head.

Police charged J. W. Shipwash, 43, and his wife with murder in the slaying. Bond for each was set at $10,000.

Failure to return home, got DETECTIVE Chief Bernard Waggoner Sr. said investigating officers pieced together this story: Georgia Ann Shipwash, the Shipwashes' 15-year-old daughter, slipped out of the family home Thursday night for a date with young Williams.

The parents, upset because of their daughter's failure to return home, got into their car about 7:30 a.m. and went in search of the young couple.

THEY SOON spotted the pair walking along a street. Shipwash got out of the car and shot the boy.

When police arrived at the scene, Shipwash cried: "God, have mercy on my soul. I've killed the boy."

Shipwash told police he "just wanted to scare the boy."

Young Williams' mother, Mrs. L. W. Williams, said her son and the Shipwash girl had been dating about a year.

REWRITE TRIBULATION

Pretty Novelist Tries Robbery, Not Suicide

CLEVELAND (UPI) — She is 23 years old, pretty, a college graduate and author of a novel. She wears a miniskirt, keeps her hair in a pony tail — and has been charged with attempted bank robbery.

Mary Marie Melvald blames her plight on her book.

She was charged in U.S. District Court with trying to rob the suburban Pepper Pike Continental Bank.

Miss Melvald, a graduate of the University of Dayton, said "It was the book" — a novel about her experiences at college — that was her undoing.

"IT IS A GOOD book, I know, about college life and what it really means," she said. "I worked long and hard and I rewrote it a lot."

She said her agent told her the book could not be published without changes. She said this caused her to contemplate suicide.

"He cut me up," she said. "I went up to my room and thought and thought about the changes. I took pills to stay up. I felt I had to get out. I thought first, hit a tree, hit a tree, just smack into a tree."

"Maybe I should have done that."

WHAT MISS Melvald did, police said, was to go to the bank Thursday, open a new account and suddenly pull a tear gas pistol on assistant bank manager Robert E. Siegfried.

"I was a mazed," Siegfried said. "I told her she must be kidding."

Police said Miss Melvald fled when she heard the bank's hidden cameras begin to whir.

Siegfried followed, police said, and asked a customer parked outside to follow.

Daughter Testifies in Scott Slaying Case

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Mary Scott, 9, testifying at a preliminary hearing for her father, Friday described the burial of a large cardboard box which allegedly contained the body of her mother.

Mary is a prime witness in the hearing for Albert Raymond Scott, 58, Torrance, accused of killing his wife, Christine, 31, on May 13, 1965. Her body has never been found.

Scott was arrested last June 6 after his stepson, Frank Gill, 17, asserted his stepfather admitted killing Mrs. Scott and intimidated him into helping to bury her body.

MARY testified that in the predawn hours of the day of the alleged slaying, she accompanied her father and Gill to Piru Creek, 10 miles south of Gorman.

She said Scott and the youth loaded the car with a "big, square, long cardboard box." She said she was "too scared" to look into the box. She also said she saw father and stepson take the box out of sight at the creek and heard "the noise of shovels."

Mary told Municipal Court Judge Armond Jewell Thursday that some time in May, 1965, her father told her and her sister, Linda, 13, their mother was dead and gave them permission to use her makeup kit.

Scott, a woodworker, has denied killing his wife. He says she left him in March, 1965.

THE STEPSON testified that Scott planned on doing away with Mrs. Scott before her alleged death.

"He always thought she brought him down and he was tired of living with her and he thought he'd be better off without her," the boy testified.

Dockmen May Snub Cuba Trade

MIAMI (AP) — U.S. long-shoremen were reported Friday to be lining up with a movement to boycott ships from countries trading with Cuba. Such a boycott has been in effect for three years at some Latin American ports.

Martin Correa, president of the Venezuelan Port Workers Federation, told a news conference after he conferred in Washington with AFL-CIO president George Meany: "I am certain that boycott action by United States and Puerto Rican longshoremen will become a fact."

But Correa would not say categorically that Meany had pledged such action.

CORREA said, "Meany authorized me to say that American longshoremen approve of the boycott 100 per cent."

Navajo Boys Agape at Disneyland Thrills

By BARBARA KNESES

The boys didn't say much. They didn't have to.

Their mouths were agape with wonder. Their eyes danced from the balloon man to the monorail to the pirate's ship to the ice cream man.

For 11-year-old James Tso and his 10-year-old brother, Bruce, it was a day they would long remember, a day they would talk about often when they returned to the Reservation in Arizona.

THE DAY AT Disneyland for the two Navajo Indian brothers was a dream brought to life by The Independent, Press-Telegram's public service column, Action Line.

In June, Action Line received a letter from Mrs. Dorothy Atkinson, 1023 E. First St., Long Beach, saying Mrs. Ann Clark, a missionary to the Navajos, was coming to the area with her Sunday school students who had perfect attendance.

Mrs. Atkinson said Mrs. Clark wanted the youngsters to visit Disneyland.

ACTION LINE arranged the visit.

Es'ter, the boys' 14-year-old sister, came along as insurance that they wouldn't get homesick on their first trip away from home.

It wasn't necessary.

Her brothers were too excited to think of anything but the bewildering mass of colors, amusements, people and shops.

Dressed in new jeans and sport shirts — splattered during the day with ice cream — James and Bruce rode the jungle cruise, listened to Lincoln's speeches, sipped cokes and chatted with Chief White Horse in Disneyland's Indian Village.

"They aren't saying much," Mrs. Clark observed, hugging the bashful Bruce, "but I can tell they are having the time of their life."

"THEY WERE never this quiet at home," their sister observed.

Meanwhile, the two brothers drank in as much as they could, answering with a shy smile and downcast eyes when asked how they were enjoying their day.

"This is a great place, even for us big kids," Mrs. Clark laughed.

A former Long Beach resident, she has been with the Navajo Evangelistic Mission near Window Rock, Ariz., for 15 years.

"I just had a calling," she explained. "I have never regretted it. The mission is my home."

SEEKS COURT BAR

Kirschke Asserts Evidence Illegal

From Our L.A. Bureau

Jack Kirschke, veteran deputy district attorney accused of the April 8 slaying of his wife and her male companion, Friday asserted that great portions of the evidence presented to the County Grand Jury which indicted him was illegal. He asked the Superior Court to bar its admission.

Through attorney Albert C. S. Ramsey, he also sought to require the attorney general's office, prosecutors in the case which comes to trial Aug. 14, to furnish the defense with copies of reports, statements and other evidence obtained in its investigations.

SUPERIOR COURT Judge Kathleen Parker will hear arguments on the motions at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Kirschke, who was in charge of the district attorney's Downey office until his indictment June 13, was arrested April 10 near Victorville as he was driving from Las Vegas toward Long Beach.

A day earlier, the bodies of Elaine Terry Kirschke, 43, and Orville William Drankhan, 41, were found in the Kirschkes' apartment at 185 Rivo Alto Canal.

Each had been shot once in the head.

One of three motions filed Friday by Ramsey alleged that the search of Kirschke's car by arresting officers was illegal because they had no warrant. The search produced a knit shirt on which blood stains were present.

KIRSCHKE, WHO was released because of lack of evidence after several days and then jailed again following his indictment, also contended that statements he made during his initial incarceration should not be used in his prosecution because the initial arrest was "without probable cause."

Exclusion of testimony about claims Mrs. Kirschke is alleged to have made concerning mistreatment at the hands of her husband was also sought, as well as the suppression of several other instances of asserted hearsay testimony.

Ramsey asked that statements to police made by witnesses who subsequently appeared before the Grand Jury be made available to him. He made the assertion that there were discrepancies between the statements given investigators and testimony given the Grand Jury.

RAMSEY SAID he was told the attorney general's office intended to request a similar right to examine defense evidence.

State, U.S.—Now County Tax Hike for L.B. Cities

Saddled with paying the history's biggest state tax increase, and faced with the possibility of a new federal surtax, property owners in a broad section of Southern Los Angeles County are scheduled to get larger property tax bills this year.

The increases are due to the county's reassessment of properties in accordance with market values in a major portion of Lakewood, Torrance and sections of North Long Beach, Compton and Lynwood.

THE AVERAGE hike in areas where land value assessments were readjusted will be 25 per cent in Lakewood and 20 per cent in Torrance, according to Mrs. Margaret Coffey, chief field deputy in the office of Philip E. Watson, county assessor.

The increases, except for improvements, are in the land values according to preliminary assessment figures. The current assessed valuation of Lakewood under the "updating program"

U.S. Ability to Feed World Eyed as Americans Starve

WASHINGTON — The question "can America feed the world?" was debated recently before the International Platform Association by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman; Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., former chairman of the food for Peace Committee; and Sen. Joe Clark, D-Pa., whose recent disclosures of Negro starvation in Mississippi have startled the nation.

Said Clark: "In many a county in Appalachia, children and their parents will go to bed hungry tonight. Two thousand years ago the philosopher Seneca said, 'A hungry people listens not to reason, or cares for justice, or is bent by any prayers.'"

SAID SEN. McGovern: "The hunger that lurks in the jungles of Vietnam is a greater danger than the guerrillas lurking there. We've accomplished more with wheat and dried milk than all the military hardware we've sent abroad."

Said Secretary Freeman: "The record will show that in the past six and one-half years this administration has made more food available to hungry people than all the previous administrations combined."

"The United States has never fought a more important war. An estimated two billion of the world's people are hungry or malnourished. Regardless of population control measures, there will be another billion mouths to feed by 1980."

SECRETARY Freeman was reasonably optimistic about the chance of feeding the world in the future. Sen. McGovern was not. "Dr. Thomas Malthus wrote a book which alarmed the world and which is still a best seller in which he said: 'Mankind's capacity to reproduce is greater than mankind's capacity to feed himself.'"

"Malthus," continued Sen. McGovern, "did not perceive the technical advances of agriculture which have postponed the day of reckoning. Nevertheless that day is approaching."

IT IS THE technical advances of agriculture which Secretary Freeman is gambling on to help feed the world. He knows that they have been amazing. In fact the advances have been so great in this country that he personally and other Secretaries of Agriculture before him have been embarrassed by a surplus, not a scarcity. But in the future the embarrassment may be the other way around.

Commenting on the American agricultural revolution, Silvio Brucan, former Romanian minister to the United States, once told me: "We are not much interested in American industrial machinery. The Germans, French and the Japanese have never machinery than you. But we are interested in your farm machinery. You have produced the most revolutionary methods of farming in the world. It is your greatest contribution. But you have ven't promoted it around the world."

Today some American companies are doing exactly this.

THE NEW Holland Farm Machinery Company, developed in a small town in Pennsylvania named "New Holland," is branching out with factories in England, Australia, France and Belgium. It has adapted special combines for harvesting rice in the Philippines and Southeast Asia and special balers to handle the short straw that is grown in Greece.

For more humid climates, especially in the United States, New Holland has developed the "haybine," a machine which cuts hay and presses the moisture out of it at the same time with a "crimp" so that hay does not have to lie in the sun as long as it did in the past. To some extent New Holland has outmoded the old farm motto, "Make hay while the sun shines."

"THE WORLD is sitting on a population time bomb with the fuse burning fast," says George C. Delp, New Holland president. "We are doing our best to prevent a global food catastrophe."

New Holland has also developed an amazing machine to pick up a crop which has fallen down in the field, chop it into small pieces and blow it into a wagon.

Another firm contributing to the agricultural revolution is the Cobey Wagon Company of Galion, Ohio, which has come a century from the old days of the lumbering farm wagon to modern automatic wagons which will unload three or four tons of corn or chopped ensilage in a few minutes.

THE CHORE Boy Company of Cambridge City, Ind., on the other hand, has adopted a unique dairying idea from New Zealand, the herringbone milking parlor, in which cows stand at an angle like the bones of a herring, to be milked. Chore Boy's motto is, "Don't stoop to teats," which means the cows walk in on an elevated platform and the dairyman stands upright at a lower level to attach the automatic milkers.

The American farmer, thanks to the ingenuity of American farm machinery companies, is producing the biggest crops in history. Secretary Freeman believes the time has come for the American farm revolution to be spread abroad just as New Holland is adapting it to Philippine rice and Greek hay.

INSURANCE men are concerned about how far to carry their interpretations of the niceties of language in policies that cover riot-damaged stores and homes in cities across the nation.

After the Watts riots, insurance companies generally paid claims—in part because Watts rioting was considered an isolated incident.

Now, however, they're seriously considering taking advantage wherever possible of clauses that permit them to refrain from paying in cases of "insurrection."

U.S. Tops in Power Politics

LONDON (UPI) — The United States has surpassed the Soviet Union in almost every field of world power politics, according to a survey published Friday by the Institute for Strategic Studies.

It said the men in the Kremlin will have to take a hard look at Soviet policies, particularly in view of the growing threat from Communist China.

"She (Russia) has been outmatched by her great opponent (the U.S.) on almost every level of international politics, be it in terms of economic, military, political or scientific influence," the SS survey said.

THE institute, a private organization with close ties to the British government, assembles and evaluates military, political and economic data on world affairs. Its reports are given great weight in London, Washington, Paris and Moscow as well as other capitals.

Investigate Intercoms

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The California Public Utilities Commission Friday delayed Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company's hospital intercom service installation pending investigation of its safety.

The service, to hospitals throughout the state, was to have gone into effect Aug. 7, but was suspended after Fisher Berkeley Corp. of Emeryville complained that the intercom phones were not safe.

Fisher Berkeley Corp., manufacturer of a competing system, said safer intercom services were available but that the PTT one apparently had not been approved by insurance underwriters.

The telephone company said at the time it filed for the service that the installation would comply with all electrical codes.

10-Carat Hero Offers Kids Day at Circus in Arena

By ARLINE SHERER

Kenneth Murphy may not be a Medal of Honor winner, but to the 13 kids he took to the circus at the Long Beach Arena Friday, he's a 10-carat hero.

To Murphy, that's no simple accomplishment. A veteran of almost 18 years of military service, the 66-year-old pensioner is blind, hard of hearing, crippled and a victim of emphysema, a lung disease. Yet he still has a soft spot in his heart for those he considers "less fortunate."

"These kids come from broken homes, and most of them never had seen a circus," reflected Murphy. "I remember what a thrill I got when my dad took me to the tent circus. I wanted these good children to have the same experience."

Murphy's only regret, he said, was that he couldn't see their faces as the kids watched the parade of animals and circus performers.

MURPHY'S gift to the handful of underprivileged youngsters was full-paid admission to the Ringling Bros. Barnum & Bailey Circus—money he set aside from his small monthly pension.

When the funds fell short of also providing the kids with taxi fare, Sonja Siegmund, a friend, called on The Independent Press-Telegram's Action Line for help.

With the aid of Clara Andrews, director of Community Volunteer Office, and August Pacheco, assistant director of Boys Club of Long Beach, Action Line recruited a bus and driver to pick up the youngsters at 3131 E. Broadway, where Murphy lives with the Raymond Barnes family.

Children have always been a joy to Murphy.

His wife died of tuberculosis when she was 24, before the couple had any children. So, while Murphy was in the Air Force, he became a foster father to children in several countries.

IN GERMANY, some of the kids he talked with and bought model boats for are successful businessmen and happy adults. More valuable than the toys and adventures he has given the children, Murphy feels, are the examples of courage and self-reliance.

When told he was about to lose his eyesight to glaucoma, Murphy immediately enrolled in a special school to learn about the unique new experience of being blind. "So I could still live like a human being," he explained.

But more than just living like a human being, Murphy is one through and through. And what better proof: 13 circus-happy kids will tell you so.

CIRCUS 'PERFORMERS'

Ingerborg Rhodin and her white Lippizaner stallion are among the professional centers of attraction at the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus in Long Beach Arena, but younger members of the audience like Lisa Devore, age 2½ (upper left), and Becky Blodgett, 3, provide appreciative sideshows at ringside for candid cameramen.

High Court Rejects Anaheim Film Plea

By BOB GEIVET

The State Supreme Court Friday rejected the city of Anaheim's appeal of a Santa Ana Superior Court ruling that police should have obtained a search warrant before confiscating a sex film.

The high court said it would not hear the appeal, thus in effect upholding the ruling by Superior Judge William Spiers that police needed a warrant when they seized the motion picture "Sexus" from the Garden Theatre in Anaheim on April 27, 1965.

Subsequently, Manager Jack Flack was convicted of showing an obscene movie, when a jury brushed aside Judge Logan Moore's order that Flack should be acquitted at his trial last Dec. 23 in Anaheim Municipal Court.

Judge Moore then set aside the jury's verdict, and the city appealed.

It was as part of the procedure of bringing Flack to trial again that the city of Anaheim sought to bolster police seizure of the film.

An officer who viewed the film considered it obscene, and decided that a misdemeanor had been committed in his presence.

Under such interpretation, seizure is normally proper, but the State Supreme Court held that police had time to get a search warrant and should have done so.

Audit Flaw Denied on Orange Harbor

The audit of the books of the Orange County Harbor District was sufficiently complete even though it did not include the historical costs of district property, Orange County Auditor Vic. Heim said he will tell county supervisors Tuesday.

Supervisors had accepted a report from the Santa Ana firm of Lyons, Bandal and Bryant when it was criticized as "incomplete" by Mrs. Janice Boer, who monitors the supervisory meetings. Supervisors then sent it back to Heim for checking.

Heim said that it is not "traditional" for audits of county departments to include costs of their properties, since they are not depreciated for tax purposes as are privately-held properties.

Bellflower Trustees Increase School Tax

Trustees of bellflower Unified School District have adopted a $8.8-million operating budget, which is expected to up school taxes about 12 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation.

The new rate is estimated at around $5.02. The budget represents an increase of $600,000 but set $500,000 aside for undistributed reserves in anticipation of increased state support.

Although no salary increases are included in the budget, the district's trustees have reserved the right to consider adjustments in wages of school personnel if the California State Legislature provides sufficient funds.

Total budget for the district for the 1967-68 fiscal year is reckoned at $10.7 million.

The jumboized fleet Oiler USS Passumpsic will be open to the public this weekend at Long Beach Naval Station.

Visiting hours are 1 to 4 p.m. today and Sunday at Pier 9.

Women visitors are requested to wear flat shoes.

Airmotive Acquired by Purex

Purex Corp. of Lakewood acquired a new, multimillion-dollar subsidiary Friday when stockholders of Pacific Airmotive Corp. approved the acquisition of their company by Purex.

Pacific Airmotive, headquartered in Burbank, has plants in five other California cities, including Long Beach. The Long Beach plant is at the city airport. The company also operates eight plants outside California.

SPOKESMEN for Pacific Airmotive said the company sought the merger with Purex to gain added capital for expansion. The company repairs aircraft, distributes small planes and sells aviation products.

"We originally wanted to merge with Citidel Industries," a spokesman said, "but we decided against that because of restrictions that would have been imposed on us by the Civil Aeronautics Board."

PACIFIC Airmotive, with 1966 sales of $62.5 million, will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Purex (estimated annual sales: $190 million).

Two Young Men Held After Police Car Attack Hearing

Two young men accused of throwing bricks at police cars in Long Beach were held Friday to answer felony charges in Superior Court.

Municipal Judge J. Merrill Willey ordered McWayne Evans, 18, of 2016 Adriatic Ave., and Earnest Edward Mayfield, 21, of Los Angeles, to appear Aug. 18 in Superior Court to face charges of assault with a deadly weapon against a peace officer.

Both defendants were remanded to custody of the Los Angeles County sheriff in lieu of $5,500 bail each.

The two were arrested about midnight July 27 after a group of 75 to 100 Negro men and women gathered at Pacific Coast Highway and California Avenue, and began throwing objects at police cars called to quell the disturbance.

Betty Turner Rites Slated

Funeral services for a Long Beach woman struck by a car Thursday on the Long Beach Freeway in Lynwood are pending at a southeast Los Angeles mortuary.

Relatives of Betty Turner, 24, of 1010 Orange Ave., are due to arrive today, according to a spokesman for Lyle's Mortuary.

Miss Turner, former resident of 1235 Lime Ave., got out of her car when it ran out of fuel on the freeway shoulder and was hit by another vehicle. She was dead on arrival at a Lynwood Hospital.

AT THE PRELIMINARY hearing Friday, Police Lt. John Coleman testified he saw Evans throw half a brick at his police car shortly before midnight. He said the brick hit the roof of the vehicle about six inches above his head.

The officer said he made a U-turn in the police car and arrested Evans as he was talking away from the scene.

Officer Raymond E. Nelson testified that he and his partner, Jose Castillo, were driving south on California Avenue at Pacific Coast Highway about 11:15 p.m. when Mayfield broke away from the crowd and threw a brick that hit the police car.

Mayfield was arrested shortly after midnight at Pacific Coast Highway and Alamos Avenue, according to police reports.

Aug. 14 Torrance Trial Set in Rolling Hills Slaying

Trial for Arthur Virgil Morgan, 65-year-old Long Beach restaurant owner accused of shooting his son-in-law to death, was set Friday for Aug. 14 in Superior Court at Torrance.

Morgan, who has owned several restaurants in the Long Beach area, including the Orbit Restaurant at 590 E. Willow St., is accused of slaying James Gilbert Frutchey, 40, in the backyard of his home at 19 Midleridge Lane, Rolling Hills.

Also charged in the slaying of Frutchey is Billy Lee McHenry, 41, of 2533 Pine Ave., Long Beach, who was manager of the Orbit Restaurant.

Frutchey, a lumber company owner, was shot four times during a scuffle in his backyard about 2 a.m. on July 2.

Sheriff's investigators said the fight broke out over Morgan's accusations that Frutchey had mistreated Morgan's daughter, Charleen Joan Frutchey.

The couple's 11-year-old daughter, Linda, was a witness in the shooting, investigators said.

2 Gridley Officers Cited

Secretary of the Navy Commendation of Achievement medals have been awarded two officers on the Long Beach guided missile frigate USS Gridley.

Capt. Allen W. Slifer pinned ribbons on Lt. Thomas P. Pendergast, navigator, and Lt. David W. Hoag, missile officer.

The awards were for exceptional performance while the ship was on search and rescue missions in the Tonkin Gulf earlier this year.

Pendergast was cited for the "flawless manner in which he ensured navigation . . . a small error would have hampered the operations and put the ship in danger from shore batteries . . ."

The award for Hoag stated:

" . . . While in his key position in the combat information center, he made consistent and rapid evaluations which saved precious time in rescue operations for downed aviators . . ."

Capt. James L. Cook Jr., commander, Destroyer Squadron 19, was present at the ceremony.

PARAPLEGIC BROADCASTS FROM HOSPITAL BED

Out of Action but Not Out of Touch

By VINT MADER

Twenty-one years a paraplegic as a result of an industrial accident and currently undergoing a spell in hospital, Bill Overstreet is still maintaining much of his communication with society on the ether waves from his station KOKX 24.4.

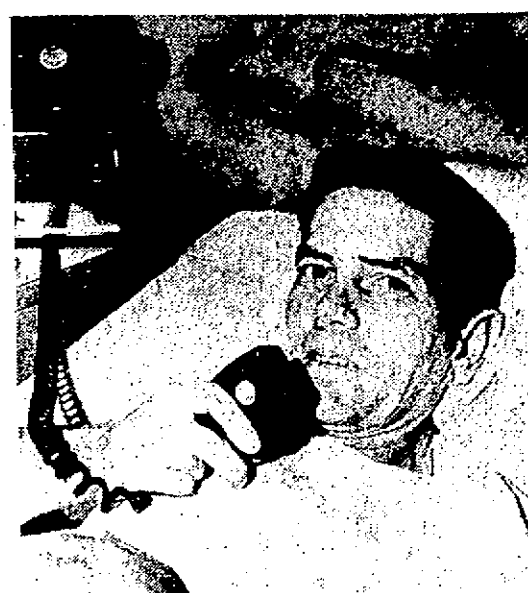

Via this citizens-band wavelength, he is able to maintain contact with his in-laws, Wally and Virginia Gill, of 739 S. Juanita Ave., Redondo Beach, who take care of his son, Dale 7½, while he is hospitalized.

HE IS ALSO ABLE to keep in touch via the little 15-milliwatt set with his wife, Georgia, who works to stretch out his small disability pension, relaying messages about anything to bring him when visiting, or on other matters, via the Gills' station KMX 7685.

With the cooperation of Pacific Hospital and radio friends both known and unknown, an aerial is mounted on the hospital's roof to keep his transmitter up to its effective range of about 15 miles.

The antenna was given to him by a well-wishing citizens band operator—one with whom he has never even spoken, but who knew he was in hospital.

Two other radio friends, Charles Wengren (KMX9434), of 1441 214th St., Torrance, and Robert Enright (KOKX2431), of Gardena, raised and connected the mast on the hospital roof for him.

Of Byzantium and Populists

BYZANTIUM AND EUROPE. By Speros Vryonis Jr. Harcourt, Brace and World, $5.50.

For 10 centuries the Persians, the barbarians and the Muslims pounded at the gates, with only Byzantium left to preserve the classical heritage and the culture and values of Christianity and the West. Constantinople was its capital. It was an empire that had to possess vitality to endure.

Religious controversies, often bloody, rent Byzantium; neighbors envious of its wealth threatened it. Time after time, when Byzantium seemed on the brink of doom, great leaders sprang up, men who knew how to adapt and to improvise. Byzantium's arts were of the noblest, as the two-score color plates and more than 100 other plates in this book attest.

The end did not come until April 1453, with the siege and capture of Constantinople by the Turks. "Men, women and children were massacred without discrimination or pity. After the first orgy of slaughter the victorious Muslims systematically plundered churches, monasteries, palaces and houses. Great numbers of prisoners were taken and enslaved."

The historian Ducas has told how the Muslim ships carried such loads of booty "that it seemed each would sink. 'And what sort of cargo? 'Luxurious cloths and textiles, objects and vessels of gold, silver, bronze and brass, books beyond counting and number, prisoners including priests and lay persons, nuns and monks.'"

Prof. Vryonis assesses the enduring cultural and artistic achievements of Byzantium and the character of its leaders, and surveys the factors, inevitable in the world picture, that produced Byzantium's collapse. His volume maintains the high standard we have come to expect in Harcourt, Brace's History of Civilization Library.

THE POPULIST MIND. Edited by Norman Pollack. Bobbs-Merrill, $7.50. The Populists of the 1890s had their grass roots on the prairies and in the Southern states, among the poor whites. Prof. Pollack is of the school of historians which views them with sympathy, unlike a revisionist school which has seen populism as a seedbed of bigotry, anti-intellectualism, and even a forerunner, in some aspects, of fascism. Were they, then genuine reformers and radicals, clear in their aims, or confused and irrational, or combinations of each?

In this anthology Prof. Pollack has brought together 89 documents from newspaper articles and editorials, political speeches and tracts, letters, books and manuscripts — and the reader can judge the Populists for himself. He can decide from men like Tom Watson of Georgia, who as the young Populist of 1892 could tell the Negro and white poor "you are kept apart that you may be separately fleeced of your earnings," yet could become U.S. Sen. Thomas E. Watson, one of the most viciously anti-Catholic, anti-Negro, anti-Semite senators ever to spew hate. Ignatius Donnelly, the Minnesota Populist, Lorenz D. Lewelling, the Populist who was elected governor of Kansas, James B. Weaver, the People's Party nominee for president in 1892, Henry Demarest Lloyd, whose activities were centered in Chicago and who was the most intellectually developed of the Populist leaders — these are others whose viewpoints are to be found in this anthology.

What success the Populists attained, and it was considerable, came because, as Prof. Pollack says, "Populism was people oriented. 'It was a dynamic social force, he shows, which left a strong impression on future radical and reform movements in the United States."

'3rd Reich' More Fall Than Rise

By DANIEL CARIAGA
Music Critic

Lalo Schiffrin's allegorical cantata, "The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich," was given its world premiere Thursday night in Hollywood Bowl, on a symphony program which included also works of Beethoven and Mendelssohn.

Participating in this much-heralded premiere were the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, conductor Lawrence Foster, soloists Lili Chookasian and Richard Cassilly, narrator Laurence Harvey and the Gregg Smith Singers.

The work is adapted from Schiffrin's longer score to David Wolper's television special "The Rise and Fall," etc., uses a quasi-poetical text of Alfred Perry to follow hazily the political events ending in 1945, is written in a slick and undistinguished musical style the composer calls "free tonal idiom" but which is actually 20th-century eclecticism.

IT IS A work which succeeds neither in telling a story nor in creating a sympathetic response in its auditors. The use of the recorded voice of Adolf Hitler may cause some temporary shock, but is not woven into the musical fabric effectively enough to be touching.

Under Foster, all forces functioned efficiently for the premiere. Miss Chookasian's rich contralto seemed to wobble a bit, but one is inclined to blame the Bowl's microphones rather than the singer's throat for that characteristic.

Tenor Cassilly pronounced the Devil's silly lines clearly; prominent among orchestral soloists were David Frisina and Shibley Boyes.

THE SMITH Singers, expanded to more than 60 (in the Grove two weeks ago, they were only seven), were comprehensible when we followed the printed text. The unlisted soloist a

Watts Festival Slates Leading Jazz Artists

Count Basie, Joe Williams, Shelly Manne and Bud Shank will be joined by TV star Bill Cosby and many other top jazz musicians in a concert series next weekend culminating the weeklong Watts Summer Festival of arts.

Four jazz concerts are scheduled Friday, Aug. 11, through Sunday, Aug. 13. In addition, there will be a rock 'n' roll show and a Gospel jubilee Sunday.

All events will take place at the Jordan High School athletic field, 2285 E. 103rd St. For ticket information, phone 564-3391.

Here's the scheduled lineup:

FRIDAY, AUG. 11
Jazz, 8 p.m. to midnight — Loretta Alexandria and quarter of the way through — the work is just under 50 minutes long — was Lou Ann Stehn.

Thanks to the conductor, the pre-intermission portion of the program held our interest also. His reading of the Overture to "Egmont" was marvelously taut, well-driven, architecturally sound. The orchestra seemed to be going out of its way for its young leader.

Mendelssohn's "Italian" Symphony was similarly solid, though lacking both the charms and the drama Claudio Abbado found in it, before this same orchestra, some 18 months ago.

WILLIAMS BASIE MANNE SHANK

Pontiff Expresses Interest in Invitation to San Diego

ROME (AP) — Bishop Francis J. Furey of the Roman Catholic Diocese of San Diego this week invited Pope Paul VI "in the name of all the people of California" to attend San Diego's 200th anniversary celebration in 1969.

Bishop Furey said that, during a five-minute conversation at the Pope's summer residence at nearby Castel Gandolfo, the Pontiff expressed extreme interest, asked to be kept informed of preparations for the ceremony and conveyed greetings to all Californians.

"THE FIRST thing he said after I invited him was something facetious," Bishop Furey said.

L.B. Pastor Will Take College Post in Oregon

Rev. David C. Le Shana, pastor of First Friends Church at 850 Atlantic Ave., has been appointed to the newly created post of vice president at George Fox College in Newberg, Ore.

He will also serve as acting president, beginning Sept. 1, at the church-related, liberal arts college near Portland.

Rev. Le Shana will deliver his farewell sermon at 11 a.m. Sunday, closing out a six-year ministry in Long Beach.

HE HAS been active in the Council of Churches, the National Association of Evangelicals, and has been a member of the Southern California Radio and Television Commission.

In addition to his pastoral and civic work, Rev. Le Shana has been taking graduate studies at the University of Southern California. He receives his doctoral degree this month.

Rev. Le Shana, who was born in India of missionary parents, came to the United States in 1949 and served various pastorates in Ohio and Indiana. He came to Long Beach in 1961 from Upland, Ind., where he was serving as director of public relations at Taylor University.

"Then he said he was very much interested and generally attended functions overseas for religious purposes."

"I assured him California was founded by a Catholic Franciscan monk, Father (Junipero) Serra, who brought religion to California in 1769."

"He said then he was extremely interested and wanted to be kept informed on our program, and I said I would do so."

"He did not by any means say he wasn't coming."

BISSHOP FUREY is vice president of the San Diego Committee planning the celebration. He said he was also invited to join a committee appointed by Gov. Ronald Reagan to work on a statewide celebration.

The bishop, who brought a group of pilgrims to Europe, said he would return to the United States today, visiting Philadelphia before heading back to San Diego.

Drive Urged to Eradicate Racial Bias

KANSAS CITY (AP) — American religious leaders of all faiths should hold a national convention immediately to plan a campaign to eradicate racial discrimination, Rev. John A. Lucal, S.J., of New York, proposed Friday.

"Whatever the churches and synagogues, acting independently of one another, have done to combat the cancer of racial discrimination up to this day, it has quite obviously been inadequate, ineffective and a cause for shame," he said.

FATHER LUCAL, a Roman Catholic scholar, spoke at a Methodist Board of Missions National Seminar for Women. He had been preceded by speakers giving Protestant and Jewish viewpoints on human rights.

"Now is the time for a bold step forward," he said. "A united front in the fight for civil rights must be formed by those Christians and Jews who are ready to take God's law seriously and fight for human rights."

Mitzvah Corps Experiment Turns to All-Year Service

A Lakewood girl and 17 other teen-agers have banded in a Mitzvah Corps to conduct a six-week pilot program of volunteer service for Head Start and Teen Post programs in Los Angeles.

The pilot program, to be completed next week, has already proved so successful that it will be extended on a year-round basis, announced Rabbi Erwin L. Herman, national director of regional activities for the sponsoring Union of American Hebrew Congregations and its 690 Reform temples.

Attorney Stanley Levy, a rabbinical student and director of the corps, said the corpsmen, housed in dormitories at the University of Southern California, have been working with disadvantaged young children and fellow teen-agers in programs at schools and with Catholic and Protestant agencies.

THE PROJECT has been a "unique happening" in a practical laboratory for the youthful corpsmen, he said.

The Lakewood member of the corps is Judy Beth Robbins, 17, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julius C. Robbins of 4379 Fairway Drive. Judy, a member of Temple Israel and 1967 graduate of Lakewood High School, is working on a project for children at the Covenant Presbyterian Church in South Los Angeles.

Her work, she said, has brought her to the realization that "I no longer feel it necessary to categorize people in ethnic or racial groups, but merely to evaluate each person as a human being."

LEVY SAID the corps is "operated in the joint spirit of the Hebrew word Mitzvah. For the Jew it is the eternal commandment of freedom and also means 'a good deed.'"

With the success of the pilot project already established, Rabbi Herman said, the union has opened a Center for Volunteer Service at its Los Angeles headquarters, 590 N. Vermont Ave., "to process the many requests received for volunteers and to 'wed

Poll Eyes Religion in Schools

NEW YORK (UPI) — Religious observances occur today in one out of 10 public school districts, according to a poll conducted by Nation's Schools, a journal for administrators.

In a Texas school district, for example, elementary pupils start the day with a devotional period. They choose a verse from the Bible and read it aloud in class. In a Kansas district, students in class recite the Lord's Prayer.

"In many cases, superintendents of districts that permit Bible reading, devotional periods, or recitation of the Lord's Prayer in the classroom don't believe these activities violate the U.S. Supreme Court's ban on such practices," Nation's Schools reported.

SHORTLY after the court's decision in July, 1963, a Nation's Schools opinion poll asked superintendents if they would support a constitutional amendment permitting Bible reading or recitation of prayers in public schools.

Fifty-seven per cent said they would. In the newest poll, a similar question found superintendents almost evenly divided; 50 per cent answered "yes."

"The topic is still timely, pertinent and — perhaps most significant — the climate of thinking among schoolmen seems to be slowly changing," the publication reported.

The survey is based on a four per cent proportional sampling of 16,000 school administrators in 50 states.

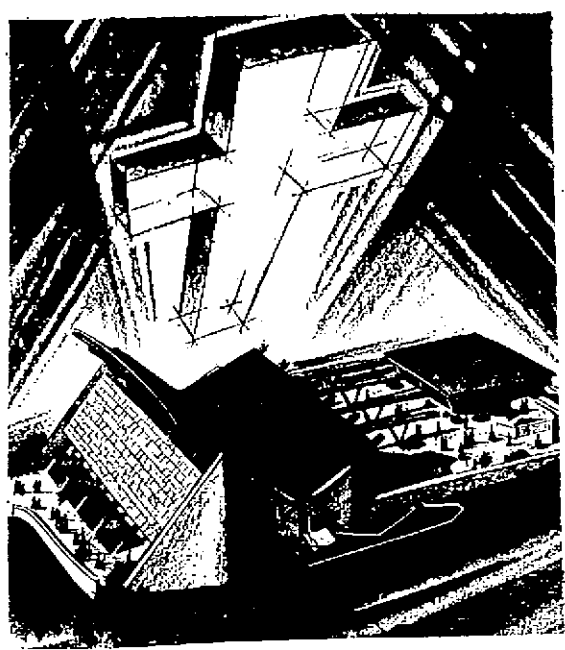

THE SURVEY found that some 11 per cent said yes when asked if pupils in their district use readings from the Bible for religious instruction during the school day; 13 per cent said their districts set aside devotional periods for pupils; and 12 per cent said the Lord's Prayer is recited in classrooms.

The administrators also were asked — "Who is most influential in deciding what religious activities will be conducted in your district's schools?"

Forty-six per cent named the school board; six per cent answered individual schools; 21 per cent said principal; 19 per cent said classroom teacher; four per cent said pupils; and four per cent answered "other."

BIBLE READING appears in the curriculum of some districts when it is studied in literature classes. In one district, however, this practice has caused problems. One superintendent told Nation's Schools, "We're in litigation over the fact that we teach a course called 'The Bible as Literature.' Wish us luck."

Speaking for the 49 per cent of administrators who stand behind the court's decision, an Arizona schoolman emphasized that the

THE POWER OF FAITH

The Christian Pavilion at Expo '67 in Montreal this year is a great ecumenical project. It is the first time anywhere that eight Christian denominations have joined under one roof to give the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all men. The theme of Expo '67 is "Man and His World." What could be more appropriate in such a setting than a graphic presentation of Christ's basic and eternal truths? The major Christian churches in Canada have undertaken this venture together. They are the Roman Catholic, United Anglican, Presbyterian, Lutheran, Baptist, Greek-Orthodox and Ukrainian-Orthodox. Since they have always agreed on the fundamental principles of Christianity (while differing in some of their interpretations), they were determined to present the Christian message with one voice. . . . To remind Man of his responsibilities to himself, to his fellow men and to his Maker.

Book Collector Discovers Literary Cache in Rectory

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — An original Douay Bible (1609-10) and editions of literary classics printed in Europe two and three hundred years ago are among about 10,000 books soon to be made available to visiting scholars here.

The dusty literary cache represents a previously well-hidden collection of early bishops who once headed what is now the Archdiocese of Louisville — and what amounts to a discovery of inestimable value to scholars.

For decades the books, most in Greek, Latin, French or German, were gathering dust in a back room of the rectory.

Then Louisville Attorney and lifelong book collector, Raymond F. Bossmeyer, walked into the room last March. He says he's been there most of the time since, cataloguing.

MEMOIRS and cathedral records also join dozens of volumes published in the United States before 1820.

"This is not a one-sided, biased collection, representing only Catholic opinion," said Dr. Wayne S. Yewwine, librarian of the University of Louisville.

"It has the pro and con — reflecting the scholarly interests of the early religious leaders in the area."

The Most Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, archbishop of Louisville, added that the collection will be kept here, perhaps in a special building to house the "rediscovered" archdiocesan library.

BOSSMEYER gave this account of how the library was accumulated: French-American Bishop Benedict Joseph Flaget, first bishop of Bardonia, now the Archdiocese of Louisville, had traveled to Europe, often visiting monasteries and libraries, begging for contributions.

He talked again and again to the priors, Bossmeyer said, who, in each case, summoned their librarians, saying, "Can't we get some books for good Brother Benedict, stuck over there on the Ohio?"

A Measure of Church Success

Bishop Cites Christian Love in Action, Based on Bible

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International.

How does a successful church differ from a failure?

Some might answer in terms of membership, staff, growth rate, activity programs, etc.

But Rt. Rev. Paul Moore Jr., suffragan bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington, D.C., has another test.

"The most important mission of a church is to present to the world a true image of Jesus Christ," he said in an interview. "If a congregation's life is such that outsiders can see Christ reflected in it, then it is doing its job, no matter whether it's large or small, rich or poor, famous or obscure."

Bishop Moore is a tall, rangy, 47-year-old man who earned a Purple Heart and a Silver Star as a Marine captain on Guadalcanal. He has a disturbing way of talking about Christ in a matter-of-fact tone, as though he meant every word of it.

"MODERN MAN, regardless of his theology, is strongly attracted to the figure of Christ," he said. "So it is more essential than ever for the church to 'show forth Christ,' as St. Paul put it."

Q. Suppose a congregation told you, "Okay, bishop, we'll buy that idea. But how can we know whether we're 'showing forth' Christ?" What would you say to that?

A. "I'd ask them a question right back. 'Do you really love one another with a love that is on a deeper level than the ordinary love which men of good will have for one another?' The kind of love which is a sign of Christ is willing to share suffering, to accept each other's failings. It's a kind of love you can almost feel when you are among people who have it. And it's infectious. People who enter the circle of it want to stay and be part of it, even when they don't understand where it's coming from."

Q. IS THAT the only hallmark of a congregation that is "showing forth Christ?"

A. "No, but the others are related to it. Members of a parish also should ask themselves, 'When people look at us, do they see evidence of unusual concern for the poor and hungry and oppressed?' Again, not just the concern of decent citizens or men of good will, but the passionate concern which Christ displayed for all in need. It's not just a matter of loving the guy next to you in the pew, but also really loving the guy downtown who is starving or beat up or drunk, or the old lady out at the nursing home who doesn't have any friend, or the family in India which can't get one decent meal a day for its children."

Q. You mean giving to charities, and paying your taxes gladly, and that sort of thing.

A. "There's more to it than that. If we really care, as Jesus cared, we'll use all of our ingenuity, all of the political and economic power we can mobilize, to deal with problems such as open housing, job discrimination, increasing food production in underdeveloped countries, and other things like that which require a social rather than an individual approach."

Q. SUPPOSE a congregation isn't much concerned with social action. The members feel that the church should "stick to religion." What do you think of that?

A. "I'm all for it, so long as they remember that Jesus had no use for any kind of religion that did not issue in compassion and generosity toward your brother. I certainly would agree that a congregation should not get so wrapped up in activities — even good and humane activities — that it neglects spiritual things. Genuine Christian love simply doesn't happen unless we are centered down in our faith, studying the Bible, and praying. Unless people are really part of Christ, all this stuff I've been talking about doesn't make any sense at all. It's only through the power that we get from living close to Him that we are able to love as we should, to live with joy and openness instead of fearfully and defensively."

Survey Shows Decline in Belief in Trnity

"Do you believe in the Trinity—the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit?"

In 1952 a Gallup Poll sponsored by the Catholic Digest showed that 89 per cent of Americans 18 years of age and over believed in the Trinity.

In 1966 a similar poll showed that the percentage of those who said they believed in the Trinity had slipped to 83.

The division of answers according to religious preference show that Catholics are the highest in expressing belief in the Trinity, which is hardly surprising in view of the fact that it is one of the cornerstones in Catholic belief, the Digest notes. Some 96 per cent believe in the Trinity; in 1952 98 per cent believed.

Of Protestants, Baptists once again expressed the strongest percentage of belief (89 per cent) and the Congregationalists the least (80 per cent). Eighty-eight per cent of the Lutherans believed in the Trinity, 87 per cent of the Episcopalians, 83 per cent of the Methodists, and 82 per cent of the Presbyterians. All percentages were down several points from the first poll in 1952.

FROM THE PULPIT
Interesting questions: Is the moral temperature of our world dropping? Have other generations had the problems that we face? Are the youth of this generation no different than past generations?

Really the world has never been moral nor Christian. Our societies have always been tempered with both, but controlled by neither. In the first family there was a murderer. In the first attempt at government by man it became a corrupt that God brought the judgment of the flood.

Sodom and Gomorrah were not typical cities. They were exceptions. But the sins of today are not new signs.

But we cannot deceive ourselves by saying that things and people are no worse than they have ever been. It simply is not true. II Tim. 3:1-5 "But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived."

The fruit of generations of sowing to the flesh will produce its harvest. Our generation is part of that harvest. There is more reaping to come.

The teachings, the discipline and the convictions of the New Testament church are needed in every life and home today more than ever. "The Word of God abideth forever."

May we suggest that you try Calvary? Calvary is for you!

CONFIDENT LIVING

Navy Officer, 23, Beats Mental Ills

By NORMAN VINCENT
PEALE

This is the story of a man who had a tough time about with mental illness and, believe it or not, he says he is actually glad of it for the experience brought important discoveries leading to a successful life. But while in the throes of the suffering he was boxed into "a private hell" through lack of personality balance.

"At 23," the young man writes, "when a junior officer in the United States Navy, I was taken sick. Hospitalized at a naval hospital—the diagnosis was acute anxiety with depression reaction."

"Believe me, I can sympathize with anyone in that state of turmoil of body and mind. I couldn't concentrate on anything and could not eat and lost 25 pounds in a short time. My bride of six weeks was left alone in our apartment, and this added to my anxiety."

"While having consultations with Navy psychiatrists I had much time to think and reflect on the past years of my young life. But still my mind remained foggy, and fears of everything assailed me from all sides. I was constantly afraid something was going to happen, but what I did not know."

"After a few weeks the doctors allowed me to live at home but consultations continued on a regular basis. They could not pinpoint any real cause for my illness."

"I PRAYED in desperation to be healed of my miserable state of mind. I had never prayed much. I had attended church in childhood but religion did not take up much room in my later life. One day I came across a column you had written. I thought that just maybe this could help. This was my start to a new life. I began to read the Bible and pray. Perhaps I was still praying out of desperation. I only know that God began to rule my life and take hold of my thoughts."

Meanwhile this officer was discharged from the Navy, and the couple moved to North Carolina. He found a job with a big bank. The young wife took a teaching job.

"I still had not been completely released from illness," he continues, "and had continuing consultations with a psychiatrist."

Then suddenly one day a new truth came that the unrest of mind and spirit I was suffering was due to a hunger for God. Slowly, as I began to fill my life with prayer and faith, anxiety and depression subsided.

"RECENTLY I was promoted to assistant operations manager of the bank. I claim no sudden healing or emotional enlightenment. But I'm no longer consulting a doctor and never felt more vibrant and full of life. I know now that 'All things work together for good to them that love God.'"

"I am grateful for this experience, had as it seemed at the time. I shall always be thankful for it as a blessing in disguise."

Well, that is a happy ending to the story of a man who traveled the long painful road back to mental health. Easement of tension, self-acceptance and fresh insight came through spiritual and medical guidance. Inner peace and a new sense of meaning resulted from religious teachings. The young man's experience points up the important fact that we face a danger of unhappiness and failure, even breakdown, by neglecting essential needs of mind and soul.

THE ABOVE incident brought to mind an old friend in Switzerland, a man of serene and urbane personality. He gives his friends a pocket-size card of lines entitled "Take Time"; the author of which is unknown:

TAKE TIME TO LAUGH — It is the music of the soul
TAKE TIME TO THINK — It is the source of power
TAKE TIME TO PLAY — It is the source of perpetual youth

The Foundation is in memory of Joseph Cardinal Ritter, who died in St. Louis in June at age 74. The Foundation was organized to perpetuate the work of the Cardinal in social justice and human rights.

Cardinal Ritter was Archbishop of the St. Louis Archdiocese. The Foundation will be used to: — Train leaders in the field of human rights and social justice through establishment of scholarships, fellowships, grants-in-aid, and loans for qualified Negro students.

— Support conferences, particularly of religious leaders of various faiths, to deal with problems of human rights and social justice, and to promote united action and harmonious collaboration in their active solution.

— Support research and other activities dealing with educational problems relating to integration, the teaching of the disadvantaged, and the promotion of civic responsibility and respect for human rights.

— It is the fountain of wisdom

TAKE TIME TO PRAY — It is the greatest power on earth

TAKE TIME TO LOVE AND BE LOVED — It is a God-given privilege

TAKE TIME TO BE FRIENDLY — It is the road to happiness

TAKE TIME TO GIVE — It is too short a day to be selfish

TAKE TIME TO WORK — It is the price of success

Perhaps we might add a line:

TAKE TIME FOR GOD — It is the way to health of body, mind and soul.

VIETNAM CHAPEL DEDICATED

Maj. Gen. Bruno A. Hochmuth of Third Marine Division speaks at dedication of Holy Trinity Chapel erected by Seabees of Vietnam hilltop.

Seabees Erect Chapel on Hilltop in Vietnam

Seabees of Mobile Construction Battalion Three have built a chapel that can be seen for miles from its hilltop site in the Phu Bai area of South Vietnam.

Their Holy Trinity Chapel is a simple one-story structure with a 25-foot steeple topped by a large white cross.

At recent dedication ceremonies, Maj. Gen. Bruno A. Hochmuth, commanding general of the Third Marine Division, noted that "the chapel was completed even before the permanent mess hall was completed — and that says a great deal for the spiritual values of the men of the Seabee battalion."

Attending the dedication were representatives of most of the commands in the area.

Behind the altar is a special feature of the chapel — a stained glass window, a rarity in Vietnam.

The Seabees' chaplain, Rev. Richard C. Hunkins, lives at the chapel, away from the other officers' quarters, to that, he said, "it will be easier for any troubled men to see me at any time of the day or night."

TELE-VUES

by TERRY VERNON

The world heavyweight championship elimination tournament, sanctioned by the World Boxing Association to find a successor to deposed M. Ali, airs at 2 p.m. today on channel 2 from the Houston Astro-dome.

ABC-TV's "Wide World of Sports," which is covering the event, will follow the action and will have cameras outside the fighters' dressing rooms for interviews.

Boxing is not one of our interests, but we don't go along with people who want to ban the sport, although we think the fighters could use a good union.

IF THERE'S time left after the first two bouts from Houston, the Jimmy Ellis-Leotis Martin and Ernie Terrell-Thad Spencer fights, ABC will shift over to action at the fifth Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada. The show, normally 90 minutes, has been expanded to two hours, from 2 to 4 p.m.

As far as television coverage of boxing is concerned, like other sports, it's a natural. Personally, we have found coverage of football, baseball, basketball and other sporting events the best entertainment on television.

Other sports on the tube today: Channel 9 cameras are at the PGA Western Open, 2-3 p.m. today and 2-3:30 p.m. Sunday; Red Sox and Twins play for channel 4 cameras (instead of the previously announced Chicago Cubs-Atlanta Braves games at about 11:15 a.m.).

Sunday's Tele Vues section will have a rundown on what the next season's sports picture looks like on the three networks.

WHILE Johnny Mathis is singing away on film for the opener of channel 11's "Summer Festival of Music," channel 2 is continuing its "Dial M for Music" with Stan Kenton 3:30 p.m.

Mathis will offer 18 of his hits, including "Once in a Lifetime," "People," "Wild Is the Wind," "Tender Is the Night" and "Chances Are." He'll be backed on the 7 p.m. show by the Michael Semmes Singers, and the Irving Davis Dancers.

Kenton plays piano and conducts "The Sound of Music," "I'm Glad There Is You," "Five Before Four," "What's New," "Three Thoughts," "Malaguena" and "Intermission Riff." Between numbers he will talk with the program host, Father Norman J. O'Connor, about Kenton's jazz training school for young people in Los Angeles.

ABC-TV says it is reconsidering plans for new studio construction in New York and Hollywood, pending final ruling on its proposed merger with International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. The ABC-ITT merger was twice approved by the Federal Communications Commission but the Department of Justice appealed and applied for a stay of merger July 21. Leonard H. Goldenson, president of ABC, told stockholders this week the company would "contest the appeal with all our capabilities."

Leave It To Larry

By LARRY MEDER HARBOR CHEVROLET
A man accused of stabbing his wife with a butcher knife, offered the most controversial explanation ever heard in a court of law. His lawyer took a wild, desperate gamble by permitting him to take the stand.
He admitted deliberately plunging the knife into her chest, yet persisted in calling her death an accident. His wife suffered from heart trouble, he explained, and one day collapsed on the floor and stopped breathing. Having been a former medical student for 2 years, he claimed he thrust the knife into her chest in an attempt to do a "heart-massage" to get it beating again, but the attempt failed. The Prosecution asked him to explain why the knife pierced her heart and he sobbed. "MY WIFE WAS BIGGER-HEARTED THAN I THOUGHT—AND I MISJUDGED THE IN-CISION!"

CURETON TO SCAT FOR UCLA ELEVEN

Prep football sensation Mickey Cureton of Compton's Centennial High School disclosed Friday he will enroll at UCLA in the fall.

The flashy halfback holds several California Inter-scholastic Federation records, including scoring 40 points in one game and 240 points in a single season.

Cureton, a prep all-America and two-time CIF player of the year, was injured in the Shrine North-South high school grid game Thursday night and made the long-awaited announcement on crutches at Orthopaedic Hospital. He suffered a minor sprain of his left knee.

He had gained 88 yards in five carries before leaving the game. He had manged a 71-yard run—the longest in the 16-year history of the event—but his south team lost 24-22.

It's Anchors Aweigh for Admiral Gridders Tonight

When the Admirals take the field tonight in their first stadium game at Veterans Stadium, it won't be just a show for football fans.

The 50-man roster will be cut to 40 players Monday morning, and every player will be fighting to impress coaches to avoid the ax.

"The spirit of the team is good," says head coach Shelby Calhoun, who will observe the game from the press box to view all the players equally, "and I doubt that anyone will be loafing tonight. As far as the players are concerned, this game is for real."

The game, a benefit for the Long Beach Junior Football Assn., will begin at 8. "The Pirates of the Caribbean," coached by Frank Gansz, will tackle the "Wild Indians" unit under the guidance of Carver Shannon.

The Pirates, with Jack Reilly, Jack Tucker, Joe Pearson and Frank DiGennaro in the backfield, will be wearing white jerseys, while the Indians will wear green jerseys and be spearheaded by quarterback Bob Wolfe, flanker Billie Daniels and halfbacks Norm Harris and Bob Lanier.

Former Pan-American Games discus record holder Bob Humphreys, making his professional football debut as a kicker, won't be allowed to kick off as the ball will be put into play on the 20-yard line, but will see duty for both units for extra points and field goals.

With the exception of waiving the kickoff, the game will be played under actual Continental League rules, with the use of league officials and referees.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

$50 MILLION TV HAUL BY MAJORS

CHICAGO (AP) — Organized baseball and the National Broadcasting Co. agreed Friday on a $50 million three-year television contract.

The package includes the World Series, All-Star Game and 28 weekly telecasts.

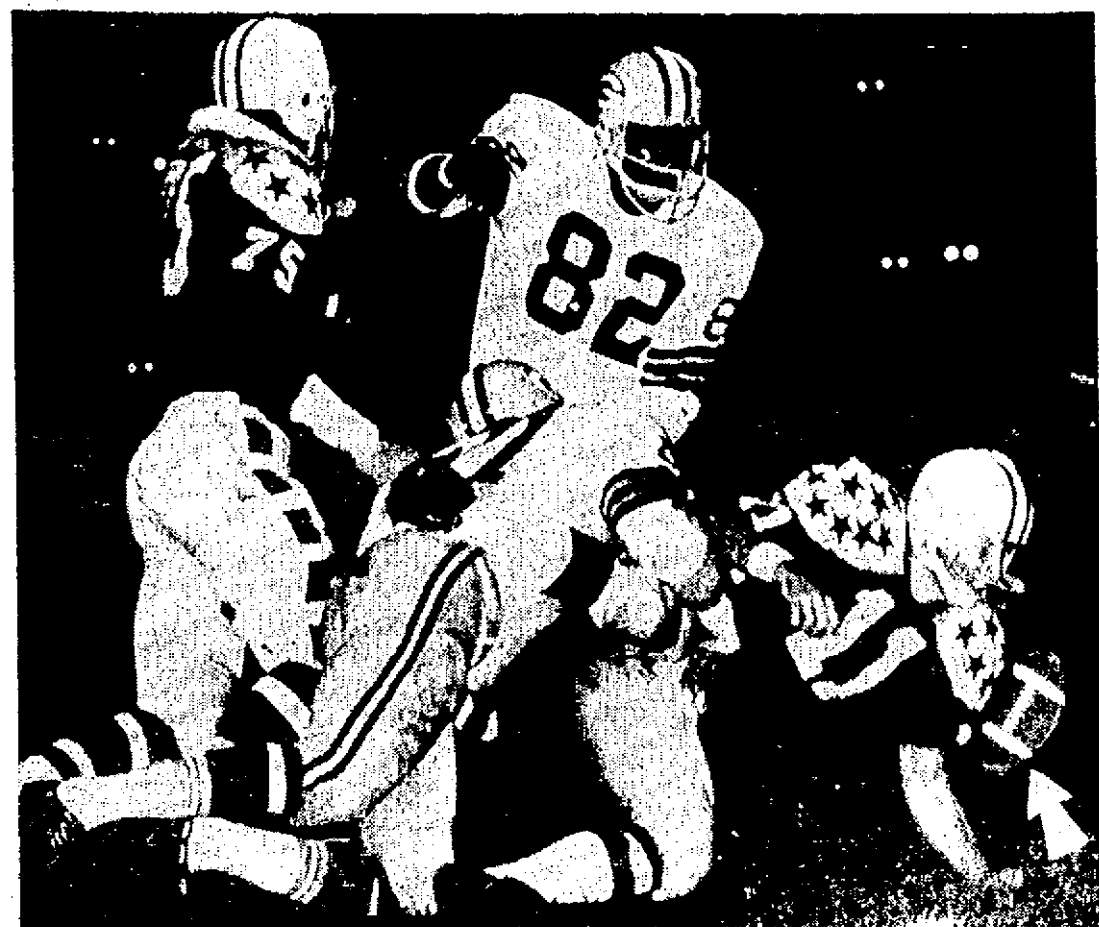

John E. Fetzer of the Detroit Tigers, chairman of the major league television committee, announced the agreement after a day-long negotiating session.

The current package, which expires after next season, was worth about $36 million.

The agreement came as a surprise. NBC's option to renew the contract did not expire until Sept. 15.

There had been some indications that baseball, buoyed by a hike in its ratings this season, would turn to rival networks before reaching the settlement stage.

An estimated 45 million persons watched the All-Star game last month when it was played at night.

Collegians See Starrs; Packers 27-0

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Green Bay Packers, led by Bart Starr with two touchdown passes, shredded the College All-Stars with surgical precision Friday night for a 27-0 triumph in the annual pro-college football struggle.

Packer coach Vince Lombardi displayed unusual mercy, holding Starr out of the game—on the sidelines in a windbreaker—for the entire second half, while Zeke Bratkowski ran the offense.

Green Bay, perhaps as a result, added only seven points for the entire second half. That came when Jim Grabowski, a second year fullback who only Thursday night was on National Guard duty in Milwaukee, ran 22 yards up the middle for a touchdown.

Playing in comfortable 70 degree temperature before 70,934 fans, Starr was the story of the Packer success.

He completed 14 of 20 passes for 204 yards and connected twice for touchdowns during the first 30 minutes.

Starr's scoring throws covered 10 yards to Boyd Dowler to wind up a 61-yard parade, and for 22 yards to Bob Long to finish off a 70-yard march.

The other Packer points were scored by placekicker Don Chandler, who in addition to converting after all three touchdowns kicked a pair of field goals, from the 13 and 14 yard lines.

His first three-pointer came the first time the Packers had the ball, winding up a drive that began on the Green Bay 26, and the next resulted from a fumble by Steve Spurrier of the All-Stars, recovered on the collegians' 15 by Ron Kostelnik of Green Bay.

The All-Stars, coached by Johnny Sauer, appeared poised and adept at the start. But they simply could not match the all-around proficiency of the pro football champions, who won their sixth All-Star game in eight appearances.

In the first half, while Starr was sparking the one-sided Packer margin, All-Star quarterbacks Bob Griese and Steve Spurrier completed only four of 12 passes for 24 yards, and had one loss intercepted.

The Stars could not move into Packer territory until less than five minutes remained in the game.

like the Packers with a team of our inexperience unless everything goes exactly right," said Sauer. "We must be given that advantage."

Sauer felt the All-Stars did not have everything going for them this year.

"But it can be done," he said. "The All-Stars have done it a couple of times and I believe it can be done again."

It was the 23rd win in the 34 All-Star Games for the pro champions, the second consecutive for Green Bay, and the fourth successive for the pros.

The Packers last year rang up the widest margin ever in the game with a 38-0 triumph. And it appeared the potential for an even more one-sided victory was present Friday.

Green Bay outgained the Stars with 121 yards rushing and 304 passing compared to 33 rushing and 103 passing for the Collegians.

Griese completed 10 of 14 passes for 83 yards, and Spurrier, the Heisman Trophy winner from Florida, hit one of nine for nine yards.

The Packers set game records for most first downs with 27, and first downs passing with 17. They tied another with 24 pass completions.

At Home They're Angels 12 Victories —12 Games

By ROSS NEWHAN

On a night which found the College All-Stars limiting Green Bay to 27 points, the Angels were seen holding Washington to four runs.

This achievement in the heat of the pennant race produced a 5-4 victory and stamped the Angels as a team to be reckoned with.

It will be recalled that the Senators had won eight of 12 from the Angels previously this season while maintaining a 31-21 superiority over the past three years.

Embracing the events of last weekend, the Angels have now won two in a row from Washington, snapping the Senators' stranglehold both on the road and at home.

Nevertheless, a crowd of 14,000 welcomed the Angels back to Anaheim and the locals responded with their 12th successive victory in Gene Autry's magic kingdom.

Leaving a 20-32 record on the road, the Angels are now 37-18 at home, where they have lost but six of their last 31 games.

The current 12-game stand is the last significant opportunity to stuff a cushion for the 29 games remaining on the road, and, in the opener, Woodie Held slammed a bases-loaded double and Don Mincher his 17th home run to support the seven-hit pitching of George Brunet (11-12) and Minnie Rojas.

It was n't that simple and before it was over the Angels were clutching rabbit's feet, horseshoes and each other as the visitors proved to be the same old Senators the Italians have come to know and abhor.

Bulls See Red, Goes Wild but Mates Are Goats of Another Dodger Circus

By GEORGE LEDERER
Staff Writer

PITTSBURGH — Walter Alston brought his circus to Forbes Field Friday night with feature acts by the bull in the outfield and some goats in the infield.

Naturally, the Pirates homed in and won, 3-2 in 10 innings.

Al (The Bull) Ferrara accounted for both runs and 4 20th of the hits with his 12th home run, a double and two singles.

The goats were losing pitcher Bob Miller and Jim Lefebvre, whose defensive lapses ran the Dodgers' losing streak to four games, three in extra innings.

pitcher, was unable to reach Gene Alley's 10th inning leadoff bouncer over the mound, then failed to break from the mound and allowed lead-footed Jim Pagliaroni to beat out a bunt.

Jose Pagan, batting for winning pitcher Juan Pizarro, also bunted and Lefebvre's wild throw to Dick Schofield, covering third, enabled Alley to score the deciding run.

Again, the Dodgers wasted a bundle of chances. They left 13 on base, two more than in a 10-inning, 3-2 loss to the Phillies Wednesday. They have scored only seven times in the four losses and have but 12 runs in the last seven games.

Only a bullish market kept Dodger stock alive against starter Bob Veale. Ferrara's fifth homer in the last dozen games cut the deficit to 2-1 in the sixth inning and his leadoff single set up the tying rally in the eighth.

Veale was excused when Johnson also singled. Al McBean pitched only to Lefebvre, who sacrificed, then Pizarro took over with an

McCullough Wins, Gold Medal Bag at 103

Combined News Services

WINNIPEG, Canada — Earl McCullough of Long Beach romped over the 10-meter high hurdles in 13.4 seconds Friday as the United States' powerful track and field forces sent the nation's gold medal harvest soaring past the 100 mark, shattering seven Pan-American Games records in the process.

McCullough, the trackman-footballer from the University of Southern California, got the decision in a photo finish with teammate Willie Davenport.

The two U.S. stars matched each other stride for stridedown the straightaway, running away from the rest of the field. Neither knew who had won until the photograph was developed.

Though Davenport was a hair back, he was given a time of 13.5 — also under the old Games mark of 13.8 by American Blaine Lindgren in 1963.

McCullough notched the 99th American gold medal. Additionally, the U.S. unbeaten men's basketball team moved to within a step of the championship by crushing Argentina, 106-55, and Yankee crews advanced to the finals in all seven events on the Red River Floodway.

It was one of the biggest days yet for Uncle Sam, whose number of gold medals was raised to 103, with 56 silver and 40 bronze.

The Yanks have a good chance of beating their record 120 set in 1959 with more titles expected in track, boxing and rowing on the final day of major competition today.

The U.S. team won five gold medals in men's events and another in women's competition, giving it 24 of the 28 championships settled to date.

The outstanding individual performance was turned in by Eleanor Montgomery of Cleveland, who broke both the Pan-Am and American record for the women's high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 10 inches.

The old Pan-Am record had been set by Mildred McDaniel of the United States in 1966 when she hit 5-6½. Miss McDaniel also had the American mark of 5-9½ set in 1956 in the Tokyo Olympics.

The veteran Ralph Boston, world record holder from Nashville, Tenn.,

Namath agreed. He completed five of seven passes for 50 yards while playing only the first quarter as the Jets scored a 55-13 victory.

The Jets intercepted six passes and brought two of them back for long touchdowns, and Emerson Boozer galloped for three more.

Boozer opened the scoring at 4:30 of the opening raced in from 21 yards five

Bars of football fields, quarterback Joe Namath of the New York Jets comes to play.

The $400,000 bonus boy was seen in several plush bars on New York's gay East Side before dawn Friday, mumbling, "My knee hurts."

The former all-America at Alabama was found at 3:45 a.m. standing on the corner of Second Avenue and 78th Street. A reporter, responding to a First Avenue bartender's elephoned tip, said Namath appeared upset.

Asked about reports that he had been heard to say he was through with football, Namath shrugged.

Namath, who has a case history of knee trouble, had worked out with the Jets at their Peckskill, N.Y., training camp Thursday but was not in his room at a 10 p.m. bed check.

"I just got angry and felt like leaving camp. I wanted to be alone, I wanted to get a way," Namath explained sourly.

Coach Webb Ewbank demanded that Namath apologize to the entire team, or he would not be permitted to play against the Boston Patriots.

Namath agreed. He completed five of seven passes for 50 yards while playing only the first quarter as the Jets scored a 55-13 victory.

The Jets intercepted six passes and brought two of them back for long touchdowns, and Emerson Boozer galloped for three more.

Boozer opened the scoring at 4:30 of the opening raced in from 21 yards five

Linebacker Al Atkinson nabbed the first of four minutes later, and the rout Boozer added an 8-yard scoring run for a 28-0 lead

Televise Elimination Fight Doubleheader

HOUSTON (UPI) — Four heavyweight boxers, only one of whom has ever been on speaking terms with the world championship, square off in a fisty twin bill in the Astrodome today in the opening eliminations to pick a successor to deposed tittist Cassius Clay.

The pairings for the unprecedented daylight doubleheader will send eighth-ranked Jimmy Ellis against ninth-ranked Leotis Martin in the first 12-rounder scheduled for national television (Channel 7) at 2 p.m.

and fourth-ranked Ernie Terrell against fifth-rated Thad Spencer an hour later, also on television.

Only Terrell, the 6-foot 6-inch one time World Boxing Ass. designated champion, has ever been as far up the boxing ladder as a title bout. His questionable reign was cut rudely short by Clay, himself, in this same Astrodome ring Feb. 6.

The others have highly respectable won-loss records on paper, but they have never proven they are

ANGELS TRIUMPH

McMullen. The Angels wish you would.

All the ex-Dodger third baseman did was hit his 11th and 12th home runs off Brunet and a two-run double off Rojas to account for the four Washington runs.

Co coin a phrase, McMullen hits the Angels as if he owns them, and Bill Rigney revealed that the price is quite reasonable.

"We don't pitch McMullen worth a plug nickel," moaned the manager.

McMullen has minted a .312 average against the Angels, has 10 hits in the last five games and 14 RBI in the 13 games played this season.

His solo homers, the first and sixth, represented half of the hits Brunet had allowed before Fred Valentine and Tim Cullen opened the eighth with consecutive singles.

At this point, with the Angel lead at three runs, Rojas replaced Brunet and McMullen doubled both runners home, leaving it 5-4 and the Senator standing on second with no outs.

Rojas reached back to strike out Dick Nen and Valentine during a flawless final frame.

Minnie manufactured his 17th save, which is unexcelled in either league, and Brunet is now 10-3 during a two-months surge which has carried the Angels from the cellar to within 4½ games of the summit.

The latest foothold was secured primarily in the third when the Angels scored four runs with two outs off Joe Coleman. But it was Mincher's resounding rocket off Bob Humphreys in the sixth which prevented slippage.

Coleman was the chief victim of the Angels' nine-run explosion last Sunday in Washington, but this time he got off easy although burdened with his eighth defeat against eight wins.

Breezing through the third, he was suddenly, swiftly attacked for consecutive singles by Jose Cardenal, Jim Fregosi and Jimmie Hall which tied the score.

Felling it a safer course to hit Mincher rather than his bat, Coleman did just that to load the bases. With the count full, the 34-year-old Held vicariously slashed a three-run double.

In his 16th summer, Woodson George Held has taken over at third base where Paul Schaaf (.190), of challenger class, Ellis, of course, has been on the fringes as Clay's chief sparring mate until Clay was convicted two months ago of refusing induction into the armed forces and his title was vacated.

The foursome scheduled to fight in the Astrodome where Caly successfully defended his title against both Terrell and Cleveland (Big Cat) Williams within the past year, make up half of the eight-man field picked to wade through the eliminations and emerge with a somewhat synthetic title.

The other four agreeing to participate in the tournament are No. 1-ranked Karl Mildenberger of Germany and third-ranked Oscar Bonavena of Argentina, who fight Sept. 16 in Frankfurt, Germany; and sixth-ranked Floyd Patterson and seventh-ranked Jerry Quarry, who meet Oct. 28 in Los Angeles.

Joe Frazier, the No. 2-ranked heavyweight who recently defeated Candian George Chuvalo, has declined to take part in the eliminations, but was due here for the bouts and has said he would immediately challenge the eventual winner.

Caly is free on bond on appeal of his federal sentence and will be a spectator in Houston expressing his loudly voiced views that he is still the champ.

Clay is not expected to have any trouble finding spectator space in the 55,000-capacity domed stadium for the fights. Even the most optimistic observers are forecasting no more than 20,000 fans. That will be far below the record throngs which saw Muhammad Ali chop Williams and Terrell into submission.

Terrell has been made an 8-5 favorite over Spencer and the Ellis-Martin bout is rated a tossup in local wagering.

Terrell, 21½, boasts 39 victories in 44 pro fights, while Spencer, 20½, has lost but three of 35 bouts. Ellis, 19½, has won 26 of 31 and the hard-hitting Martin, 19½, has a 23-1 record and has won his last 15 in a row.

'GALS, IT WAS A LONG WALK'
You'd think anyone who had just walked about 30 miles would be dead on his feet, if not dead. San Pedro's Larry Young won the 50,000 meters at Pan-American Games Friday in 4 hours, 26 minutes, 20.8 seconds, and probably spent same amount of time talking with Canadian fans Judy Philipson and Marjorie Kleyn.

Burleson, San Diego KO Hawks

Roy Burleson held the hot hand Friday night as San Diego Sub-Flot No. 1 took both ends of a Western Softball Congress doubleheader from the Long Beach Nitehawks, 3-0 and 1-0.

As a seventh-inning pinch-hitter, Burleson socked a homer with two men aboard to account for all the first-game runs.

Loser Don Sarno struck out nine but was in trouble in the last frame. After letting two runners on base, Sarno retired the next two batters but Burleson hit the first pitch over Blair Field's leftfield fence.

San Francisco (AP) — Clyde Lee, who jumped from the San Francisco Warriors of the National Basketball Assn. and caused a $1 million suit against the New Orleans Saints of the American Assn., with whom he signed, wants to come back.

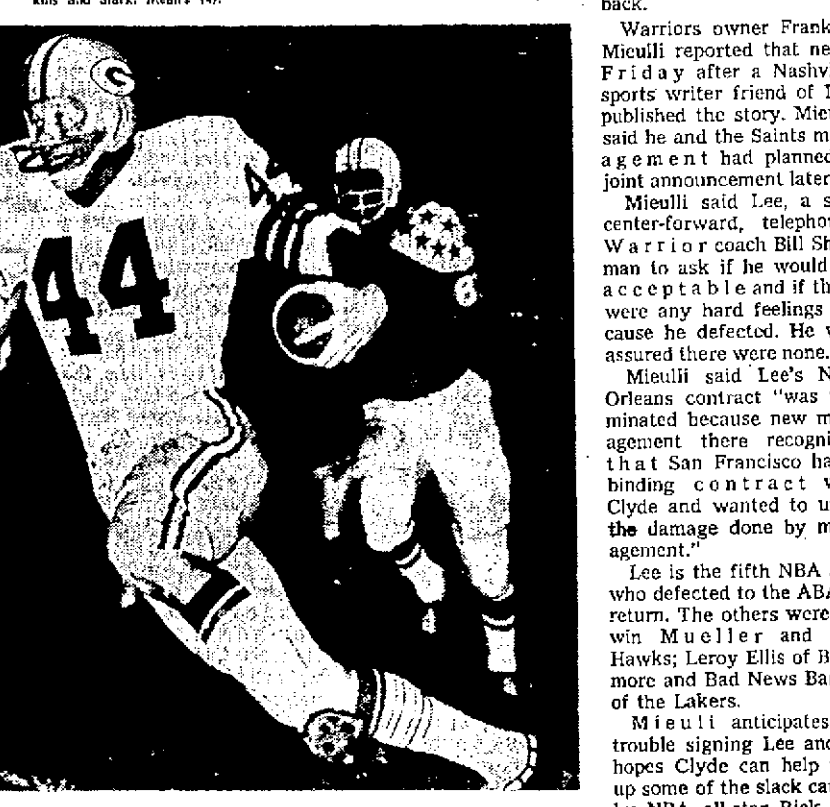

Warriors owner Franklin Mieuli reported that news Friday after a Nashville sports writer friend of Lee published the story. Mieuli said he and the Saints management had planned a joint announcement later.

Mieuli said Lee, a star center-forward, telephoned Warriors coach Bill Sharman to ask if he would be acceptable and if there were any hard feelings because he defected. He was assured there were none.

Mieuli said Lee's New Orleans contract "was terminated because new management there recognized that San Francisco has a binding contract with Clyde and wanted to undo the damage done by management."

Lee is the fifth NBA star who defected to the ABA to return. The others were Erwin Mueller and Lou Hawks; Leroy Ellis of Baltimore and Bud News Barnes of the Lakers.

Mieuli anticipates no trouble signing Lee and he hopes Clyde can help take up some of the slack caused by NBA all-star Rick Barry's defection to the Oakland Oaks.

Packer mates, romped for big yardage Friday while Bill Fairband (86) of Colorado, like his fellow All-Stars, took plenty of nosedives.

leaped 27-2½ in the broad jump; Tom Gage of Billings, Mont., won the hammer throw with 214-4; and Larry Young of San Pedro captured the 50-kilometer or 31-mile walk in 4:26:26.8.

All were gold medal performances and Pan-Am records. Long Beach's George Frenn was a bronze medalist in the hammer throw at 210-3.

Another Pan-Am record was set by the U.S. men's 400-meter relay team, which clocked 39.1 in winning its semifinal heat. This was only one-tenth of a second off the current world record set by the U.S. quartet in the Tokyo Olympics and two-tenths off the pending mark set by a French team at Ostrava, Czechoslovakia, with 39.0 July 22.

Also, Mrs. Cherrie Sherard of Oakland, Calif., set a Pan-Am record with a 10.9 clocking in the semifinals of the women's 80-meter hurdles. Mamie Rallins of Chicago won the first heat in 11.0, also a record.

The United States meets Mexico tonight in the deciding game of the tournament. The American women's cagers were also victorious, 51-44, over Cuba for a final 6-2 record on the silver medal.

Although suffering a 3-2 loss to Brazil, the Yank volleyball team won the gold medal on the basis of the best set average after falling back in a three-way tie for first place.

But the big victory the Americans wanted got away — at least temporarily — when they lost to Cuba in baseball. The best-of-three series for the title now is tied at one game each with the gold medal going to the winner of today's finale.

Ken Smith of the Army and Jim Spencer of Idaho each homered in the third inning but the Cubans rallied from a 5-2 deficit to win, 7-5.

BUBBA'S BOILING—HIS BROTHER CUT Don't Want to Play With Colts

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bubba Smith, pro football's No. 1 college draft choice, says he doesn't want to play with the Baltimore Colts because they cut his brother, Willie Ray.

Bubba told Bill Tanton, sports editor of the Baltimore Evening Sun, he didn't see "how I can play in Baltimore after this."

Tanton talked to Smith in Chicago where he played Friday night with the College All-Stars against the Green Bay Packers.

The Colts cut Smith's brother Tuesday. He was a running back who had been given a tryout last year with the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League.

The National Football League Colts had first choice in this year's combined draft and took Bubba, Giant defensive tackle from Michigan State.

Bubba said that "Kansas City probably would like to have us—" meaning himself and his brother. "That's what I'm going to try to work out when I get back to Baltimore — a trade to Kansas City."

In Westminster, Md., at the Colts' training camp, coach Don Shula said, "No player is going to dictate which other players we keep or cut."

Shula said Willie Ray Smith was treated like any other player. "We didn't feel he was a back we needed," said the coach.

The spokesman also said that it would be impossible to trade Bubba to Kansas City since there is no inter-league trading with the AFL.

Long Beach Advances to Finals With 11-0 Pony Win

Steve Waldorf struck out 12 and allowed only one hit as Long Beach routed Lynwood 11-0 Friday in the Pony Sectional Tournament at Whaley Park.

Shortstop John Hund homered with one on in the first to lead the Long Beach attack. Hund also singled and scored four runs. First baseman Dan Peters got two singles and scored twice.

Long Beach and Lakewood will meet in the championship game at Whaley Park at 2:30 p.m. today. If Lakewood wins, the tournament is over, but if Long Beach wins, another game will follow immediately.

The tourney winner advances to Lancaster for regional play beginning Wednesday.

Mike Denton drove in two runs and Bill Baker got the only extra-base hit, a double for Lakewood.

Beach Cities pitchers suffered from wildness, giving up seven walks in the fifth and sixth innings.

Indians Roast Podres at Stake in 11-5 Win

Sims HR in First Ignites Barrage

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Duke Sims knocked in five runs, three of them with a first-inning homer that highlighted a five-run outburst off veteran Johnny Podres, to lead the Cleveland Indians to a 11-5 victory Friday night over the Detroit Tigers.

Leon Wagner walked and took second on Max Alvis single to start the Indians' first inning rally. Don Demeter doubled in Wagner and Sims followed with his sixth homer to make it 4-0. Vern Fuller hit the next pitch for another homer to climax the inning off Podres, who suffered his first loss of the season against three victories.

Cleveland boosted its lead to 6-1 in the third inning on a double by Tony Horton, a sacrifice by Demeter and Sims' sacrifice fly.

The Tigers came back with four runs in the sixth against Indian starter and winner Sam McDowell. Willie Horton singled and Mickey Stanley walked. After Jim Price sacrificed, Ray Oyler doubled in both runners to narrow the deficit to 6-3. Pinch-hitter Jim Landis then hit a two-run homer to make it 6-5.

Cleveland then made it a rout with two runs in the seventh and three in the eighth.

In the seventh, Chuck Hinton singled, took second on a wild pitch and scored on Wagner's double to left. Vic Davalillo ran for Wagner and Alvis followed with an infield hit. Horton walked to fill the bases, Lee Maye batted for Demeter and struck out but Davalillo scored as Sims grounded out to first.

In the eighth, Chuck Hinton singled, took second on a wild pitch and scored on Wagner's double to left. Vic Davalillo ran for Wagner and Alvis followed with an infield hit. Horton walked to fill the bases, Lee Maye batted for Demeter and struck out but Davalillo scored as Sims grounded out to first.

He relied on fast balls because his arm was still bothering him after a cortisone shot," said Pagliaroni. "I think he threw only two curves all night. One was to Ferrara and he telegraphed by stopping at the top of his windup. It was low, but Ferrara was able to pick it up and practically threw it over the (scoreboard) clock."

The Bull fattened his average by 12 points, to .280, and thereby became the leading regular. He has hit safely in eight of the last nine games.

DIS AND DATA — Phil Regan gets his second start as a Dodger this afternoon against Vera Law (1-0). Regan (4-5) started at Philadelphia, July 11, tossed seven innings and picked up a 2-1 victory with help from roommate Ron Perranoski. Claude Osteen and Tom Sisk are the probable starters Sunday.

The Pirates sold relief pitcher Pete Milliken to the Cubs for the $25,000 waiver price Friday afternoon.

John Gorman, who had a 10-4 record and 2.92 ERA at Columbus (International) was recalled to fill Milwaukee's spot on the roster. Willie Stargell, who has hit two home runs against the Indians this season, probably will miss the entire series. He has been sidelined because of a hip injury.

Jim Lefebvre injured his left shoulder while swinging in batting practice and was scratched from the starting lineup.

His injury was the 30th for the Dodgers this season. Don Drysdale, left at home because of a sprained back and hip fracture of the left index finger, will join the Dodgers in St. Louis Monday, but probably will not pitch until Wednesday night.

Dodger coach Preston Gomez will manage the San Juan club in the Puerto Rican winter league. He already has assembled some outstanding major league talent, including an outfield of Roberto Clemente, Tony Gonzalez and Lee Maye. Phil Casanova of the Senators will catch, the shortstop will be Leo Cardenas of the Reds and the second baseman will be Tony Taylor of the Phils. Gomez needs only some pitching to become the summer book favorite.

He may take along Alan Foster, the highly touted Dodger farmhand at Stockton.

LOS ANGELES — Pittsburgh's Scholtz led off with a home run off pitcher Jim Lefebvre. Lefebvre pitched a scoreless inning, but was pulled after one inning because of a sprained back and hip fracture of the left index finger, will join the Dodgers in St. Louis Monday, but probably will not pitch until Wednesday night.

MINNEAPOLIS — Lefty Jim Merritt toughened after some early-inning troubles and scattered five hits, pitching Minnesota to a 3-0 victory over Boston Friday night.

BOSTON — Andrew Zito pitched a scoreless inning, but was pulled after one inning because of a sprained back and hip fracture of the left index finger, will join the Dodgers in St. Louis Monday, but probably will not pitch until Wednesday night.

Nolan, 19, and Jaster were locked in a scoreless duel when the Cards erupted in the sixth inning with five runs on just three hits to boost their league lead to seven full games over the second-place Chicago Cubs.

K-CITY BOSS, SEATTLE TALK MOVE

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, is expecting to arrive today to discuss the possibility of moving his American League baseball franchise to Seattle.

The Seattle Times said Finley apparently wants to meet quietly with city, county and state officials concerning a move.

In Chicago Thursday, Finley told directors of both major leagues he has hired a management consultant firm to help determine the future of the club's franchise. Oakland and Seattle were mentioned as possible locations if the A's move from Kansas City.

Braves Swamp Cubbies

CHICAGO (UPI) — Rookie Cecil Upshaw put down a Chicago rally in the seventh inning to save Pat Jarvis' 12th victory Friday and give the Atlanta Braves a 6-3 triumph over the fast fading Cubs.

Upshaw was brought in after consecutive singles by Al Spangler, John Stephenson and pinch-hitter Lee Thomas had produced one run. Don Kessinger skipped a single through the drawn-in infield to drive in one run but Upshaw then retired Glenn Beckert, Billy Williams and Ron Santo to end the threat.

The loss was the fourth in a row for the second-place Cubs and their ninth in the last 12 games.

Denis Menke collected four hits and Hank Aaron and Joe Torre each contributed three singles to account for almost all of the Braves' attack against losing pitcher Rich Nye.

Menke doubled and scored the Braves' first run in the fourth on a single by Aaron, who also scored on an error, infield hit and an infield out.

Clutch Pitching, Hart's 25th Homer Whitewash Mets

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ray Sadecki and Frank Linzy combined to pitch a six-hit shutout and Jim Ray Hart hit his 25th homer of the season Friday night to give the San Francisco Giants a 3-0 victory over the New York Mets.

Sadecki, who notched his first victory since July 7, held the Mets to only five singles through the first eight innings and lifted for Linzy after giving up a one-out single to Tommy Davis in the ninth.

Hart provided the Giants with the only run they needed in the second inning when he slammed his homer off loser Tom Seaver, but Sadecki's timely hitting led to two insurance runs.

Sadecki singled home Tito Fuentes with the second run of the game in the fifth inning after Fuentes had reached base on force-out and stolen second. His second single was sandwiched between singles by Hal Laine and Jesus Alou in the seventh and led to the Giants' final run.

The Mets' main threat in the eighth inning came in the eighth inning on one-out singles by Ed Kranepool and pinch-hitter Bob Johnson.
